All submissions for the calendar should be made available to the Collegian by 5:00pm on the Monday before publication.

Please send via inter-office mail to the Collegian Calendar Editor, drop it off at the Collegian office, or send it to BEHRCOLL3@aol.com.

The Collegian cannot guarantee publication of events due to space constraints. The Collegian also reserves the right to edit any material submitted for publication. The calendar is intended for Behrend notices and events.

Events

Music at Noon: The Logan Wintergarden Series continues Friday, March 20 with a lunchtime performance by The Crosstown Trio, an eclectic ensemble that includes electric guitar, classical guitar, and flute. The performance is free and open to the public, and guests are invited to bring a brown-bag lunch and enjoy the music in the sun-dappled Reed Wintergarden.

In the sixth of the Open House Nights of Astronomy, Dr. Alan Boss of the Carnegie Institute of Washington will lecture on "Extrasolar Planets." In his lecture, Dr. Boss will discuss the latest observations and his theoretical studies of extrasolar planets and brown dwarfs. The lecture will take place on Thursday, March 26 at 7:30 p.m. in Science 101.

One man with four wives. The powerful master of a family is supporting four wives in 1920's China. Each wife has her own house in the family compound. Every evening a red lantern is lit in front of the door of the wife with whom the master wishes to sleep with. The competition between the wives is tough, as their master's attention carries power, status, and privileges. Each wife schemes and plots to make sure the choice is her. This movie, "Raise the Red Lantern," is being shown on Tuesday, March 24 in the Reed Lecture Hall at 7:00 p.m. This Chinese drama shows the plight of women in China in the early twentieth century. This 1992 Academy Award Nominee for Best Foreign Language Film is sponsored by the Women's Film Series as part of Women's History Month.

correction...

Our printer inadvertently switched basketball photos between the front and back pages in the March 5 Collegian. New issues with the photos in the right places were printed and distributed that Thursday night. Persons possessing the issue with the printer's photographic error can get a corrected version by stopping by the Collegian offices or calling 898-6488.
