

ATHLETE OF THE WEEK

Calhoun dominates to earn ATW

Senior captain Beth Calhoun of the Penn State - Behrend women's softball team is this week's Housing and Food Services Athlete of the Week.

After traveling down to Florida for eight games during spring break, Calhoun returned back to arctic Erie leading the team in nearly every offensive category, not to mention being the team ace on the pitching mound.

Calhoun is currently batting a team high .586 (17 - 29), with a team leading four doubles and seven RBI's. On the pitching mound Calhoun sports a team low 3.03 ERA, only allowing a stingy three runs per nine innings.

After the softball team started off their season at a mark of 1 - 7, in which the team lost more than half their games by a mere one run, Calhoun sees the team's luck as making a turn for the better in the near future.

"I think we will start coming together once we start playing again," said Calhoun. "Down in Florida, we just came out on the bottom. We played well the whole trip, we just didn't put hits together when we needed to," added Calhoun.

Calhoun attended high school at Harborcreek High School near Erie, PA. She now majors at MIS at Penn State - Behrend, and is currently working an internship at Alliance Plastics in her free time.

Some of Calhoun's hobbies include taking care of her fish and cat at home, while also helping take care of her two nephews that live at home with her. Beth says she enjoys motorcaring, especially cheering on her boyfriend who competes in drag racing. Besides softball, Beth enjoys both bowling and playing volleyball.

In looking ahead to the rest of the season, Calhoun remains very optimistic and positive about the team's chances in '98.

"We are not real sure of what to expect from the rest of the AMCC this year," said Calhoun. "We are just going to go into each game with a positive attitude and try to play our best."

The women's softball team returns to action this Saturday when they travel to rival Frostburg State for an afternoon doubleheader. The game against Frostburg will also mark the beginning of AMCC conference play for the Lions.

The softball team is scheduled to play their home opener doubleheader, next Tuesday against AMCC challenger Lake Erie at 3:00 p.m. The Lions also play at home the following day, on Wednesday at 3:00 p.m. against AMCC foe Pitt - Bradford.

Men's tennis drops down to 1-3

The Penn State - Behrend men's tennis team is currently struggling through a difficult stretch of their season. Although their results may not be so favorable, the team remains positive about their level of play.

"We might not be winning a lot of matches right now, but our level of play has increased with every match," commented head coach Chuck Keenan.

Keenan cited the consistent play of freshmen Matt Weber.

"Matt gets stronger with every match he plays, and he is constantly raising his level of play," declared Keenan.

The Netters' recent troubles have been closely related to the ability of their opponents. The team lost to nationally ranked Allegheny on Monday, and it next faces powerhouse Grove City on Tuesday.

"We are right in the middle of the toughest stretch of our season, it should be all downhill after Tuesday," observed team captain Art Faix.

The team is looking forward to the start of the AMCC season. The Lions are predicted to challenge for the inaugural AMCC crown. The Lions' relentless attacking style and never say die attitude, should help them achieve their goal of winning the AMCC title.

The Lions will spend the next week adjusting to the possibility of moving play outdoors as the weather improves. Most of the Lions practice time has been spent at the nearby Pennbriar facility.

The Lions will open their home season next Tuesday against Grove City. Come out and support the Lions to help them start their home season off on the right foot.
