Intramurals are probably one of the most popular extracurricular activities at Behrend. Rob Wittman is the person who is in charge of coordinating all of these activities, as well as the recreational activities on campus.

This year, there have been several changes and additions to the intramural program. First, a recreational calendar has been added and will include such activities as a canoe trip, fantasy football, and a Euchre tournament. There are also plans for a white water rafting trip in the spring.

New intramural fields are in progress. Although the completion of these fields has fallen behind sched-floor, as they were in the past.

Wittman advises new students to "get involved in out-of-class activi-

Behrend hosts second annual Herb Lauffer Memorial soccer tournament

By Anne Rajotte
Editor in chief

This coming weekend, the Behrend men's and women's soccer teams will be hosting the second annual Herb Lauffer Memorial Soccer Tournament.

The women open the tournament Friday September 4 at 2:00 p.m. playing Lycoming College. The late game has SUNY-Oswego against the Yellow Jackets of Baldwin-Wallace. On Saturday, there will be a consolation game at 11:00 a.m. and the championship game following at 1:00 p.m.

The men's team starts off against the SUNY-Oswego Lakers at 3:00 p.m. on Saturday September 5. The late game will be Baldwin-Wallace versus Lycoming College at 4:00 p.m. The consolation game will be played Sunday September 6 at 11:00 a.m. The championship game is the same day at 1:00 p.m.

The men's team has several local players on the roster. They include: sophomore goalkeeper Graham Rudolph (McDowell HS), junior defender Aaron Pentz (McDowell HS), junior defender Kevin Ebner (North East HS), sophomore defender/midfielder John Dunleavy (North East HS), junior forward T.J. Pfleger (Saegertown HS), sophomore forward Dave Snook (Girard HS), freshman midfielder Brian Larson (McDowell HS), freshman defender Mark Szwecwycowski (Cathedral Prep) and senior midfielder Kevin Rinhardt. The women's team also includes several locals including sophomore forward Katie Giles (Villa Maria HS), junior defender Jill Yamma (McDowell HS), freshman forward Amy LaRocca (North East HS), and freshman forward Shannon Wroblewski (Seneca HS).

The men's team had a 12-8 record last season and won the AMCC Tournament. The women's team had a record of 14-7 and also won the AMCC Tournament and played in the ECAC Playoffs in the 1997 season.
