Events

All students are invited to become a part of living history at Behrend. Leave a message on the video time capsule which will be produced at the Founder's Day Celebration. This event will take place on Thursday, October 29 beginning at 4:30p.m. Come to the Reed Union Building Wintergarden to create a thirty-second message which you will be remembered by. Individuals, clubs, organizations, academic units, majors, roommates teams, and others are welcome.

Over 100 employers from across the nation are coming to the seventh annual Career Day/Employment Information Fair at the Mercyhurst College Athletic Center on Thursday, November 5 from 1 to 4 p.m. All area college students are invited to the free fair sponsored by the Erie College Career Cooperatives, which includes Mercyhurst, Edinboro University, Gannon University, Penn State Erie, The Behrend College, and Allegheny College. Students who are looking for employment or internships should bring resumes, and all students should dress appropriately. All college students, not just graduating seniors, are encouraged to attend the fair and learn more about prospective career fields and internships. Registration is not required for the career fair. To obtain a complete list of employers who will be attending, contact the related Gannon University website at www.gannon.edu/resources/career/index.html. For more information visit Behrend's Career Development Center, or call Mercyhurst Career Services at 824-2426.

Louise Kaplan, renowned author and feminist scholar, will speak on Thursday, October 29 at 7:00p.m. in the Reed Union Building Lecture Hall. Her appearance is free and open to the public, and continues the Creative Writers Series. This series is co-sponsored by the Mary Behrend Cultural Fund and The Clarence Baumann Smith fund. For more info, contact the Student Activities Office at 898-6171.

The Office of Catholic Campus Ministry invites all to attend their weekly Catholic mass every Sunday at 8:00p.m. in the Reed Commons.

The Studio Theatre at Penn State Erie, The Behrend College, presents Crimes of the Heart, which is set for Nov. 6, 7, 10, 11, 12, 13, and 14 at 8 p.m. and Nov. 8 and 15 at 2:30 p.m. Crimes of the Heart is the Pulitzer Prize-winning play that established playwright Beth Henley as a major voice in the theatre. Tony Elliot, instructor in theatre at Penn State Erie, is directing the production. Set entirely in the kitchen of the Magrath home in Hazelhurst, Mississippi, the play examines the lives and loves of the three sisters: Lenny, who at 30 is the oldest; Meg, 27, the middle sister; and Babe, 24, the youngest. As the town looks on, Lenny does her best to hold the family together, in spite of destructive and even homicidal tendencies of her younger sisters. The production includes six Penn State Erie students: Jamie Lojewski, a sophomore liberal arts major from Erie plays the oldest sister, Lenny; Amanda Pieper, an undergraduate studies freshman from Lake City is Meg, the middle sister; and Nadia Drozda, an undergraduate studies freshman from Pittsburgh, is Babe, the youngest. Rounding out the cast is Jessica Dows, a freshman science major from Edinboro, who plays the sisters' cousin, Chick; Dallas Skeens, a sophomore liberal arts major from Erie, who plays Doc, Meg's old boyfriend; and Josh Iszkula of Lake City, who plays Babe's lawyer, Barnette. Tickets for the production are $3 for students and $5 for general admission. To make reservations, please call the Studio Theatre box office at (814) 898-6016.

Notices

Flu shots through the Health and Wellness Office are currently being offered to any student. The cost of the injection is only $10.00. Students can obtain the shot at any time, except Wednesday mornings, or Friday afternoons, and are welcomed on a walk-in or appointment basis. This injection fights the respiratory flu and combats fever, chills, headache, dry cough, and muscle aches. Restrictions may apply to individuals with particular allergies, or other medical conditions. To obtain further information on this injection, please contact the Health and Wellness Center at 898-6217.

There will be a Halloween Bash on Friday October 30, 1998. The party is sponsored by various organizations on campus and will take place in the Reed Commons from 9:30p.m. to 12:30a.m. The price is $2.00 in advance or two can goods, or $3.00 at the door or three can goods. Costumes are more than welcome, and there will be various games taking place throughout the evening. Contact the Office of Student Affairs for more information at 898-6111.

The Matchbox Players will hold a costume sale at the Studio Theatre Thursday, October 29 from 11:00a.m.-1:00p.m. and 8:00p.m.-10:00p.m. On Friday, October 30 there will be a midnight madness sale from 9:00p.m. to Midnight. Also, there will be a Matchbox Players Meeting on November 5 at 6:00p.m.

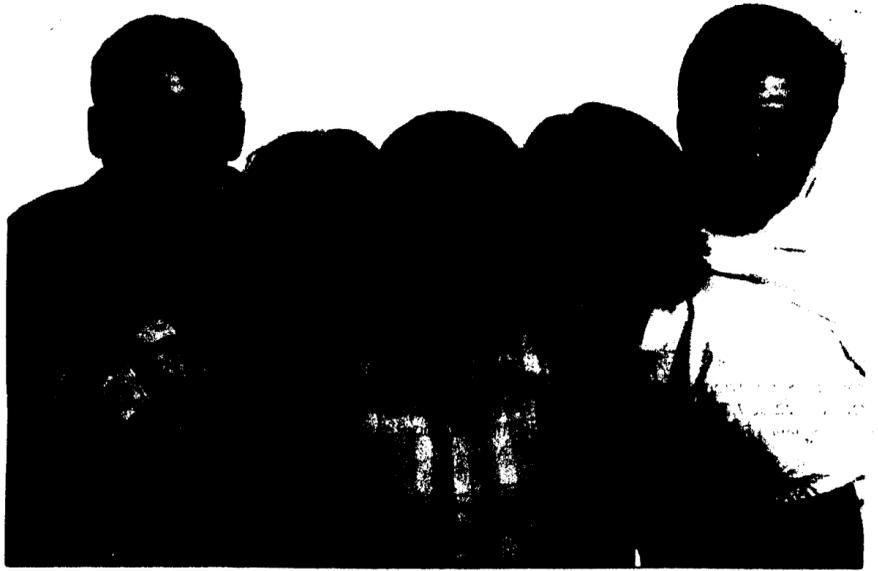

The Office of Police and Safety the Alpha Sigma Alpha sorority, and Omnicron Delta Kappa are continuing their yearlong clothing drive to benefit those in need. The groups will continue to collect items through Friday, November 13. The organizations seek men's, women's and children's clothing in good condition. Blankets, sleeping bags, toys for children, brand new sealed toothbrushes, and boxed or bagged diapers are needed as well. The items collected will be distributed Saturday, December 5 at Shiloh Baptist Church on a first come, first served basis. Boxed or bagged items may be dropped off at the Police and Safety Office, or at the John F. Kennedy Center, 2021 East 20th Street, Shiloh Baptist Church, 901 East 5th Street, and Booker T. Washington Center, 1720 Holland Street.
