Notices Events

The Student activities Fee Committee is preparing to allocate $19,000 in funds for the spring 1999 semester. The committee invites suggestions from organizations for programming related proposals. An example might be a program not previously funded through the Student Government Association budget or some new program/project your group would like to do in the spring. Please pick up a suggestion form at the Reed Union Building (RUB) Information Desk, the SGA Office, the office of student Activities, or the office of Student Affairs to suggest uses for the available funding.

Please return your suggestions to the office of Student Affairs, Reed Union Building, no later than Friday, January 22, 1999. Questions may be directed to Mr. Ken Miller, Interim Dean of Student Affairs (ext. 6111) or Buck Goedicke, SGA President (ext 6220). Thank you in advance for your input.

Four photography students from Penn State Erie, The Behrend College, garnered six awards in the Art Mania Exhibit at First Night Erie, the community is annual New Years Eve celebration.

Heather Sees, a freshman business major from Mount Jewett, received the grand prize in the College category for her photograph titled Barely Making It. Butler Sophomore Bethany Boarts, in the division of undergraduate studies, received two honorable mentions, as did Matthew Meyer, a junior biology major from Erie. Tracy Obarsky, a sophomore in meteorology from New Carlisle, Ind. also received an honorable mention.

"I'm delighted that these students did so well," said Behrend photography instructor Karol Tomczak. "I love teaching this class and watching the students' work mature as they learn new techniques." I'm very proud of their accomplishments.

"Urban Legends" is playing this week. See calendar for times.

Bobby Seale, founding chairman and national organizer of the Black Panther Party, will speak at Penn State Erie The Behrend College, on Monday, Jan. 18 at 4 p.m. and at 8:30 p.m. His presentations, which take place in the Reed Union Building, are part of the college's daylong celebration of Martin Luther King Jr.'s life.

At 4 p.m., in addition to remarks by Seale, the students, faculty, and staff of the College will gather to view a video re-enactment of the bus trip to the March on Washington and a student act portraying Dr. King's "I Have a Dream" speech. At 8:30 p.m. Seale will present his lecture.

Seale, along with Huey Newton, formed the Black Panther Party for Self-Defense in 1966. The party advocated the right to self-defense and worked to organize a power to the people revolution against what they saw as institutionalized racism, discrimination, and police brutality.

Under Seale's leadership the Black Panthers grew from 400 members to more than 5,000 members in 40 chapters and branches across the United States.

Today Seale is the creator and director of REACH Inc., an organization that teaches effective community organizing to young people. He is also a volunteer community liaison with Temple University's Department of African and African-American Studies. Seale is the author of several books, including Seize the Time, which was written while he was jailed without bail for two years, and his autobiography, A Lonely Rage.

Seale's presentations are free and open to the public. For more information, please call the Penn State Erie Office of Student Affairs at (814) 898-6111.
