

Website of the week

By Jon Stubbs
features editor

Having trouble finding enough money to pay for college? Join the club. There's a scholarship out there for everyone, but how can you find the right one for you? <www.collegeboard.com> can help you out.

This website searches the entire internet for available scholarships. From the home page, click on the link marked "Search for Scholarships" and you're on your way.

The search page consists of a form which will ask you if you want to be considered for financial aid based on federal grants, financial need, or your personal academic achievements.

This site is very thorough. It asks for your race, religion and family income. It even asks the users if they have any physical disabilities (asthma, hemophilia, etc.).

Not looking for a scholarship? You need an internship, loan, or a research grant? <www.collegeboard.com> can help you out in those areas, too.

So no matter if your a high school student, or a researching professor, this site can help you out.

The Beacon will feature a different website each week.

- ACROSS
- 1 Savoir-faire
  - 5 "It's a Wonderful Life" director
  - 10 Bridge achievement
  - 14 Discomfort
  - 15 Partner of Porthos
  - 16 Hard to find
  - 17 Local level
  - 19 Overthrow
  - 20 Altercation
  - 21 Seeger and Sampras
  - 23 Caviar base
  - 24 Drain
  - 26 Gives a sign of
  - 28 Stereo part, for short
  - 31 Wall covering
  - 33 Took off
  - 34 Deep-fried pastries
  - 36 Doorway
  - 39 Bell ringer
  - 40 O'Hare tenant
  - 41 Merchant
  - 42 Showing deference
  - 43 Old salt
  - 44 Ward off
  - 45 Profit figure
  - 46 Cook's sample
  - 49 Liquid sample
  - 51 "And I Love ___"
  - 52 Cut
  - 54 Slip away
  - 58 Rara ___
  - 60 Showing no emotion
  - 62 Leak slowly
  - 63 Home of the Heat
  - 64 Pocket bread
  - 65 "Born Free" lioness
  - 66 Boston fish choice
  - 67 Musial or Getz

© 1999 Tribune Media Services, Inc. All rights reserved. 1/28/99

- DOWN
- 1 Labels
  - 2 "God's Little ___"
  - 3 Confab
  - 4 Examinations
  - 5 Ford or Dodge

- 6 Resting on
- 7 Snow and Cates
- 8 Bounder
- 9 Cash in hand, e.g.
- 10 Sell-out letters
- 11 Canadian range
- 12 Fiery crime
- 13 Doles (out)
- 18 Daily serials
- 22 College social groups
- 25 Less colored
- 27 Malone and Marx
- 28 Trajectories
- 29 5,280 feet
- 30 Ancient stringed instruments
- 32 For each
- 35 Wet impact
- 36 Boardwalk extensions
- 37 Green Gables girl
- 38 Latvian
- 40 Lincoln or Fortas

- 42 Golf score
- 44 Power classification
- 46 Another part of the plan
- 47 Carouse
- 48 Leveling wedges
- 50 Liquid impacts
- 53 Verne's captain
- 55 Module
- 56 Computer input
- 57 Verve
- 59 Health resort
- 61 Make free (of)

Chuck and Ginny's: good home cookin'

by Roger Burlingame
staff writer

I recently visited a small Italian restaurant called Chuck and Ginny's, located on 5th and Cascade streets. I was tipped off to its existence by a request sent to the Beacon via E-mail. I was informed that it was the best Italian eatery in the city; if it's not the best, it's pretty darn close.

The atmosphere was great. When we first walked in, the place was packed and it was seat-yourself. Chuck and Ginny's is a very small restaurant with classic 70's wallpaper, and lots of latticework for the ivy to grow completely around the dining room. But the best part is that the immortal Chuck and Ginny themselves observe their patrons from their spot on the wall.

We started off with deep fried mushrooms. Normally this is not a remarkable dish, but I've never seen a bigger helping of shrooms in one order, not to mention the extra tasty batter, and the fact that they were very juicy made it most definitely outstanding. The entrees were excellent. I had the Breaded Veal Cutlet and it was perfect. As you can well imagine the sauces in this place are phenomenal. The marinara was, I hate to say it, better than my grandmother's. The veal was very lightly breaded and as tender as you could want. The only problem I had with my meal was that there was too much for me to eat at one sitting and I had to take some home. My date enjoyed the chicken and mushrooms over fettuccine which had a great alfredo sauce, and complemented the other flavors perfectly.

Now came the check for our food: the total bill after tip was $28.33.

For dessert we had nothing because we both agreed that there was just too much food for us to even think about having anything else. All in all I would recommend Chuck and Ginny's to anybody who appreciates really, really good cookin'.

Singer, songwriter and guitarist Ani DiFranco released her album, Up, Up, Up, Up, Up, Up last week. Look for a review in Features next week.

Been there. Done that.

What's next? You decide.

The Student Activity Fee Committee is preparing to allocate $220,000 for the 1999-2000 academic year. We need your suggestions. Please pick up a Suggestion Form at the Reed Union Building (RUB) Information Desk, the SGA Office, the Office of Student Activities, or the Dean of Students Office to suggest uses for the available funding. Funding guidelines are summarized below.

GENERAL STUDENT ACTIVITY FEE FUNDING CATEGORIES

- CAMPUS ACTIVITIES which enhance out-of-class experiences for students, including registered student organizations, publications and radio stations, publicity for student activities and programs, learning experiences, and travel. (NOTE: The Committee will accept project-based proposals from registered student organizations. Funds will only be allocated for one-time events.)
- EQUIPMENT which facilitates opportunities for student involvement and campus-wide programming
- FACILITIES UPGRADES in direct support of out-of-class experiences
- PROGRAM SUPPORT to meet campus-wide programming needs, such as lecture series, music programs, cultural events, and entertainment.
- RECREATION, including support for club sports, intramurals, open recreation, and facilities and equipment which support these needs.
- DIVERSE POPULATIONS AND ISSUES, including programs and activities which support and/or enhance such diversity and non-traditional activities as women's and multicultural issues, subsidized child care, special lounges, and program support.
- SELECTED SUPPORT SERVICES, including athletics, career development and placement services, childcare services, health services and health education, personal counseling, and student activities.

$220,000

Proposals are due by 5:00 p.m. on Monday, February 1st, 1999.