SMITH FAMILY GIVES CHAPEL, BELL TOWER TO BEHREND

The Larry V. Smith family has made a gift to build a multi-faith chapel and bell tower that will contribute substantially to the spiritual dimension of a Penn State Behrend education. The $3 million project will be funded by gifts for the bell tower from the late Floyd "Smitty" Smith and his wife, Juanita, and for the chapel by Larry V. Smith, his Kathryn, and their children.

Smith, owner of Automation Devices, Inc. in Fairview, said that he and his wife decided to build a chapel for the College several years ago, when he was dealing with health problems. "We experienced tremendous support from family and friends at that time and made the commitment to fund the chapel in the future," he said. "We're happy we could honor our commitment."

A statement developed by faculty, staff, and students calls for the chapel's design to "inspire reverence, awe, contemplation, and peace." Early plans envision the chapel with not only a flexible worship space but also rooms for receptions, small gatherings, and meetings. The bell and clock tower will feature a full carillon of bells that will toll the hour and play both sacred and secular music.

On July 13 Penn State's Board of Trustees approved Noelker and Hull Associates, Inc. as the architectural firm that will oversee the project. The firm has a long history of award-winning designs, including the multi-faith chapel for the President of the United States at Camp David. Design work will begin immediately, and the College expects the project to be sited and ground to be broken within the year.
