MUSIC AT NOON: THE LOGAN WINTERGARDEN SERIES

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

Did you have a role model while growing up? Do you want to be a role model for a young child who needs support? Volunteer JUST one hour a week at our Adopt-A-School Tutoring Program. Help a child with their reading and homework, show them that working hard pays off with an education, and help them believe in themselves and to reach for their dreams. If you want to make a difference, call the Office of Student Activities at 898-6171 for more information.

Manhattan Wind Quintet, Tuesday, September 21, Noon.

Enthusiastic advocates of contemporary chamber, the Manhattan Wind Quintet is widely respected throughout the United States and Europe for its distinctive performances. The group's technical polish and strong empathy for style has earned it such celebrated prizes as the Coleman International Chamber Music Competition and the Young Artist Peninsula Festival Chamber Music Prize.

All performances are held at the Reed Union Building Wintergarden. Audiences are invited to bring a brown bag lunch. Admission is free.

Events

B.R.U.N.O.S.

Saturday, September 25 at 6 and 8 p.m. Sunday, September 26 at 2:30 p.m.

First presented in April 1999, this musical review about college life at Penn State Behrend was a complete sell-out. All of the Matchbox Players will return to bring the College's first original musical back to life. Get your reservations early!

For Studio Theatre reservations and ticket information call (814) 898-6016.

WALK TO CURE DIABETES

Diabetes kills an American every three minutes and you can help find a cure for this disease by joining the Penn State Behrend TeamWalk to Cure Diabetes. It's a 5K walk held at Presque Isle on Sunday, September 19th and transportation is provided. Sign up in the Office of Student Activities or call 898-6171 for more information.
