PACIFICA QUARTET CLOSSES 1999-2000 LOGAN SERIES

The Pacifica Quartet will offer the final performance in the tenth anniversary season of Music at Noon: The Logan Wintergarden Series in the Reed Union Building at Penn State, Erie, The Behrend College. It will be free to the public. Guests are encouraged to bring a brown paper bag lunch to enjoy the informality of this lunchtime event.

The Pacifica Quartet includes four gifted musicians of varying international origin. The countries represented are Pakistan, Korea, Australia, and the United States.

The string ensemble performs chamber music and participates in education and outreach programs. Each of the four winners are recipients of the 1998 Naumberg Chamber Music Award.

For more information about upcoming Logan performances, contact the Penn State Erie Office of Student Activities at (814) 898-6171.

BOOKSTORE OFFERS "PASSPORT TO FITNESS"

To ensure that everyone traveling during spring break has an enjoyable time, the Penn State Behrend Bookstore will offer the "Passport to Fitness" program on Wednesday, March 1, from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. in front of the Bookstore in the Reed Union Building.

Topics such as skin care for vacationers, personal safety, exercises, and healthy eating tips (along with some tasty samples) will be covered during the program.

Stop at the Bookstore to pick up your "passport" and have it stamped at each "station," so you can gain discounts on bookstore purchases (except textbooks and software) and have a chance to win a vacation gift basket.

For more information call Jan Gatti at the Bookstore, x6236.

SISTER! SISTER! BY VINNIE BURROWS

Celebrate African American History Month and Women's History Month by attending this one-woman masterpiece by Vinnie Burrows.

Burrows portrays 15 women of different ages, races, and nationalities. She uses the words of gifted writers and the true life stories of women of Soweto, Ireland Italy Harlem, and Appalachia, among others.

An award winning actor, writer and producer, Ms. Burrows began her career as a child performer on radio. She has performed on Broadway, television, in films, and at college campuses in the United States and abroad.

Sponsored by the Association of Black Collegians and Women Today, Sister! Sister! is free and open to the public on March 1, 2000 at 7 p.m. in Reed Commons.

Sister! Sister!, performed by Vinnie Burrows and presented by Association of Black Collegians and Women Today, will be held on March 1, 2000.
