AN EVENING OF DUBIOUS TASTE

Students are invited to bring poems, stories, songs, or skits of...well, just what the title says- dubious taste-to this event where they will be welcomed, to share with the audience. "Dubious Taste" is an annual event English and Humanities majors look forward to every year. Traditionally held on the evening of April Fool's Day (the most appropriate day of the year), the fact that April 1 falls on a Saturday prevented the tradition from continuing. Instead this year's Spring Production will be held on Monday, April 10, in the Studio Theater. Refreshments will be served.

Sponsored by the Roundtable Society, this event will take place on Monday April 10, in the Studio Theater at 7:00 p.m.

Tuesday April 11:

1:00 p.m. — Baseball vs. Pitt. Bradford

7:00 p.m. — Woman's Film Series Gabbeh in the Reed Lecture Hall

WOMAN'S FILM SERIES PRESENTS GABBEH

The 3rd and final feature in Penn State Behrend's Woman's Film Series is Gabbeh. It will be shown in the Reed Union Building at Penn State Erie-The Behrend College in Room 117 on April 11 at 7 p.m. It will be free and open to the public.

Originally a documentary, Gabbeh was directed and written by Mohsen Makhmalbaf, whose work has been banned in Iran because it challenges the cultural tradition of male-dominated societies. The film is told from a woman's point of view, virtually unheard of in the Iranian culture. The movie is also an extraordinary portrayal of nomadic tribes and their landscapes.

For more information, contact the Penn State Office of Student Activities at (814) 898-6171.
