

Looking For Something To Do In Erie?

Take a tour in our town!

by Jeff Miller

Take a long romantic walk on the beach. Hey it's cheaper than the dollar theater.

Are you one of those people who say, "there's nothing to do in Erie." Well you're wrong! Erie can be a fun place if you want it to be. Before you go on reading this, you should tell yourself three times, "Erie is fun!"

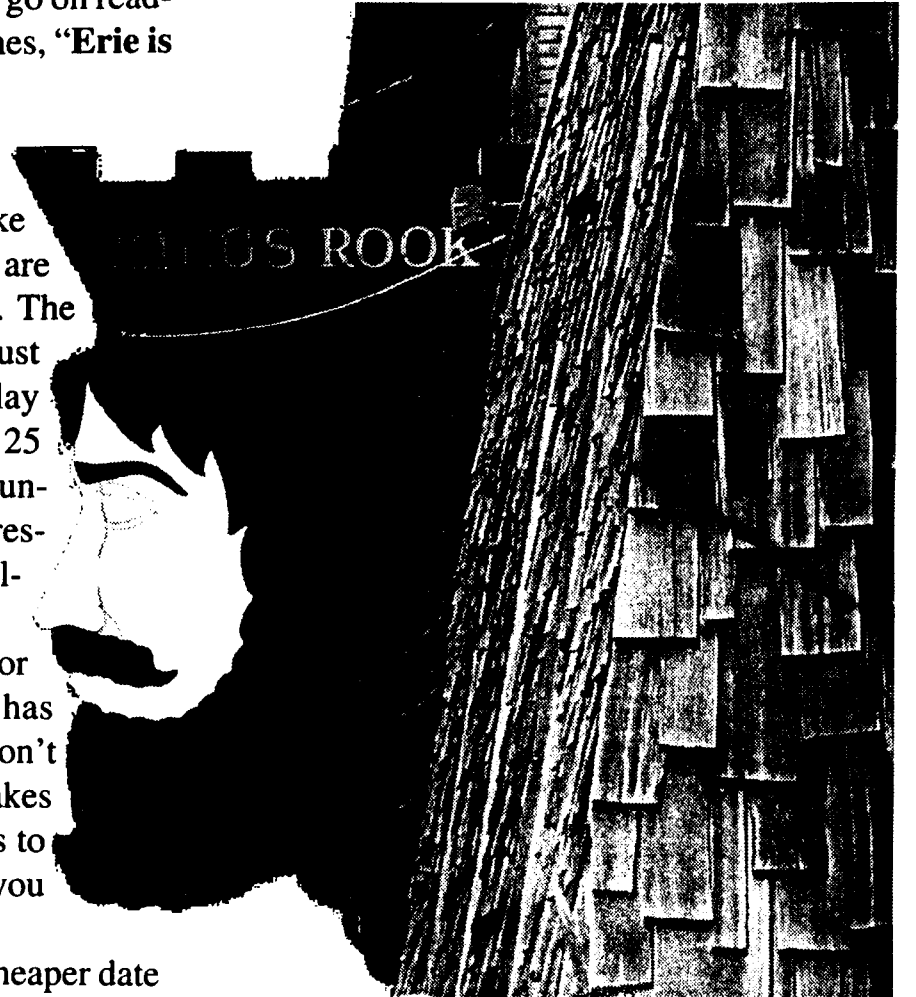

All right now, let's continue. What to do in Erie? If you are Twenty-one and enjoy drinking like most college students do, there are dozens of bars and pubs in Erie. The Kings Rook and Andy's Pub are just a couple of them. If you like to play billiards, Andy's Pub has about 25 pool tables as well as a full bar. Hungry too? ChiChi's has a bar and restaurant with margaritas and excellent Mexican food.

If you want to buy the latest in fashion or just window shop, the Millcreek Mall has stores of all shapes and sizes. If you don't have a car, just hop on the Blue Bus. It makes periodical trips from the Behrend campus to Peach Street. While you're at the mall you can catch a movie at the dollar theater.

Hey guys, are you looking for an even cheaper date than the dollar theater? Take your girl for a romantic walk on the beach at Presque Isle.

She'll love you for being sensitive.

These are just a few of the fun things to do in Erie. I've traveled all over the country, and Erie has most of the same things to do as any other city. So this weekend, just go out and search Erie for even more fun activities.

You and your friends can cram into the tiny photo booth by McDonalds and get a goofy picture taken. Stop by the pet store and play with the puppies and kittens.

Go to Shot in the Dark for a futuristic deathmatch laser tag game. Shot in the Dark is just off I-90 on Peach street.

Don't have a lot of money? Missed it at Tinseltown? Go to the dollar theater. Are you really, really poor? Then go on a Tuesday when your flick of choice is only 50 cents.

Andy's Pub is located at the corner of Peach and 38th street. It's a great place for you and your friends to kick back and unwind.

ChiChi's has a Monday Night Football special on tacos. So go on down to Millcreek Mall to watch the Monday Night Football game on the big screen TV at ChiChi's Mexican Restaurant.
