DR. BEAUMONT KICKS OFF PROVOST'S SERIES

John Beaumont, associate professor of engineering, will present the first lecture in the 2000-2001 Provost's Speaker Series at Penn State Erie, The Behrend College. His address, "Building a Bridge Among Faculty, Students, and Industry," will be presented on Monday, November 13, at noon in the Reed Union Building Lecture Hall. The lecture is free and open to the public.

Beaumont received the newly created 2000 Council of Fellows Faculty Outreach Award for his leadership in the development of two Penn State Erie outreach centers, the Plastics Technology Deployment Center and the Plastics Computer-Aided Engineering Center, which provide advanced technical services and process improvement for the plastics-related industry in northwestern Pennsylvania. He continues to work through these outreach centers to assist regional manufacturers.

Each year the Penn State Behrend Council of Fellows presents its Faculty Research Award and Excellence in Teaching Award to faculty who exhibit outstanding efforts in these areas. This year, the Council also established the Faculty Outreach Award, presented to a faculty member for outstanding service to his or her community and profession.

The winners of these three awards are then invited to lecture in the Provost's Speaker Series. Other award winners will be speaking this year include Excellence in Teaching Award recipient Dr. John Champagne, associate professor of English, and Faculty Research Award recipient Dr. Syed Saad Andaleeb, associate professor of marketing.

LOGAN SERIES FEATURES TOWER BRASS QUINTET

Music at Noon: The Logan Wintergarden Series will continue with a performance by the Tower Brass Quintet on Tuesday, November 14, at Penn State Erie, The Behrend College. Guests are invited to bring a brown-bag lunch to the noon concert, which takes place in the Wintergarden of the Reed Union Building. All performances in the Logan Series are free and open to the public.

With a blend of traditional and contemporary music, the Tower Brass Quintet has earned a world-wide reputation. Innovative programming, engaging stage presence, and outstanding musicianship give them an ability to connect with audiences of all ages.

The Quintet was founded in 1979 and currently includes Brian Bushong and Larry Herman, trumpet; Daniel Saygers, trombone; David Saygers, tuba; and Bernice Schwartz, horn. Skilled as teachers and arts professionals, the group has performed at the International Brass Chamber Music Competition in Hungary, with the Baltimore Symphony, and has collaborated with several premiere brass chamber ensembles, including the London, Budapest, Annapolis, and American Brass Quintets.

Each Tower Brass program is thoughtfully planned for a mix of entertainment and discovery, featuring specific programs for the intended audience.
