A Closer Look

Lake Effect, formerly known as Tempus, is Penn State Behrend's literary magazine. Lake Effect is currently accepting writing submissions for its 2000-2001 issue. Students can submit as many pieces as they want, but those not be pre-vised. All must be double Fiction and nonfiction are limited to 15 pages in length. Students must put their names, phone numbers, addresses, and titles on their submissions. Works can be dropped off in the SGA office/organization mailroom. The mailboxes are in alphabetical order, and the Lake Effect mailbox is still under "T," for Tempus.
The deadline is December 15, 2000.

FALL GRADUATION

On Saturday, December 16, Penn State Behrend will hold its fall 2000 commencement. The commencement speaker will be Dr. John Rossi, associate professor of history. The ceremony will be held at Noon in the ARC with full academic regalia. In case of severe weather that would inhibit travel, the ceremony will be postponed to Sunday, December 17. If in doubt, call x6000. A reception will be held immediately following the ceremony to honor graduates. If planning to attend, please contact the Provost's Office at x7121 by December 1.

Sunday, December 17:

- 5:00 p.m. — Residence Halls close

HELP US HELP OTHERS!
ALTERNATIVE WINTER BREAK
JANUARY 2ND-7TH, 2001

Come and be a part of a wonderful service project through Penn State Behrend. Students from Penn State Behrend will get the opportunity to help people in need on Staten Island, New York. The students will work through Project Hospitality — a food bank, homeless shelter, and positive living center for HIV patients. Everyone is eligible to gain this truly rewarding life experience, so come, and help us help others.
