LOGAN SERIES FEATURES EBERLI ENSEMBLE

Music at Noon: The Logan Wintergarden Series will continue with a performance by the Eberli Ensemble on Wednesday, January 17 at noon in the Reed Wintergarden.

Acclaimed for their talented and exhilarating performances, the Eberli Ensemble boasts four talented virtuosos whose instruments include clarinet, violin, cello, and piano. They present innovative and entertaining programming ranging from the Baroque to avant-garde.

Named for the father and son craftsmen who worked in Prague during the golden age of stringed-instrument making in the 18th century, the group includes Evan Spritzer, Andrea Schultz, Michael Finckel, and Evelyne Luest. The ensemble performs a wide repertoire of Beethoven, Schubert, Faure, Debussy, Ravel, and Stravinsky as well as young composers Michael Torke and Aaron Jay Kernis.

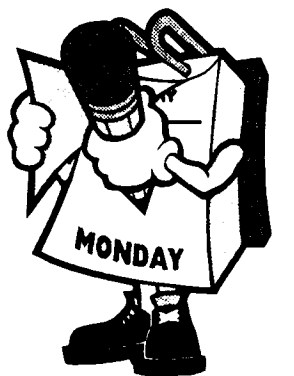

Music at Noon: The Logan Wintergarden Series brings world-class musicians to the college to perform in an informal setting. The series is made possible through a grant from the Harry A. Logan, Jr. Foundation.
