PENN STATE BEHREND SHOWS GERMAN FILM THE INHERITORS

The third and final film in the Women's Film Series at Penn State Erie, The Behrend College, is The Inheritors. It will be shown Tuesday, April 10, at 7:00 p.m. in the Reed Union Building Lecture Hall.

Directed by Stefan Ruzowitzky, this German film tells a tale of class warfare in 1930s rural Austria. The dilemma begins when, in his will, the master of a farm leaves his estate to his employees. In a society where the brutal exploitation of peasants has remained virtually unchanged since feudal times, his action creates an uproar among both peasants and gentry. The film shows how the seven suddenly enfranchised peons form a cooperative and overcome anarchy, male entitlement, leadership conflicts, and self-indulgence.

Ruzowitzky explores the timeless and relevant issues of idealistic revolution versus pragmatic reform and the radically different perceptions of reality experienced by the haves and the have-nots.

The Women's Film Series is sponsored by the Office of Student Affairs and is free and open to the public. For more information, call the Office of Student Activities at (814) 898-6171.

The Month of April has been designated as National Sexual Assault Awareness Month. Many programs nationwide have been planned in an effort to raise awareness and educate the public of the many services for victims. "Take Back The Night" is a march and rally held in conjunction with Sexual Assault Awareness Month. The focus is to raise awareness and to protect against domestic violence and sexual assault. This year, on April 25, Women Today, a student organization at Behrend, will organize the "Take Back The Night" rally and march in downtown Erie, beginning at Perry Square. Sponsorship from local businesses is needed for the success of this event. If you have any questions or suggestions call x7450 or x7162.
