ATHLETE OF THE WEEK

Brianne Engelbert

Engelbert, a senior from Meadville High School, had 124 assists, 36 digs, and 17 kills for the Behrend Lions for a 2-1 record this week. Behrend defeated La Roche 3-0 on Sept. 26 but lost to Penn State Altoona 3-2 on Sept. 28. The Lions rebounded to defeat Frostburg on Saturday 3-0. The Lions' next game is at Fredonia Saturday at 10 a.m. in an independent game.

Men's water polo wins second game of season

The Behrend water polo team recently competed in the Grove City Invitational and upped their record to 2-8. The Lions lost the first game of the tournament to Slippery Rock 10-1.

"We did not play up to expectations," said coach Josh Heynes. "We ran with this team a week earlier, but this time we could not get any offense to work."

Behrend also lost its second game to Gannon 20-8. Again, the Lions just could not get anything to go their way offensively.

The Lions beat Mercyhurst 19-5 in game three for their second win of the season.

"It was expected and it was nice to be able to play around with the line up and get everyone involved," said Heynes.

Behrend fell to Grove City 14-10, in the fourth game, but Heynes was pleased with their play.

"It was our best game of the season, because we played a solid four quarters," he said. "I will say it over and over... we were just robbed. The referees were terrible, given the calls were inconsistent and unfair. The table was awful with the clocks. I know it sounds like an excuse, but we had them on the ropes.

"Grove City came into the game thinking we were going to be a push over. In the pre-game the entire team was fooling around. We gave them a game the entire time, but things would just not go our way. We play them again this weekend and the Lions are ready and we know that we will beat them."

One standout player is Andrew Hanhauser, who is now four goals away from the team record. He has also tied the assists record. Jon Harding finally was able to put the ball in the cage more. Goalie Robb Christensen is also shining. He has smashed the saves record and has played very well given he is a freshman.

This weekend is the CWPA tournament at Washington & Jefferson. Behrend plays Grove City in an enticing rematch, and then they play Mercyhurst.

"Our minds are set on winning against Grove City," said Heynes, "and we know we can beat Mercyhurst."

"Our preparations will be the same. We are staying over fall break and going two three-hour sessions on Monday and Tuesday. Next weekend is just Division III schools. We have played W & J and Grove City, but not the other Division III teams. We are very excited that we are playing schools of our caliber and know that we will have a pretty good showing in the end," said Heynes. Players to keep an eye on are Hanhauser, Jon Harding, Casey Doody, and Mark Ostrzeniec.

"They have all picked up their game to the next level," said Heynes. "I hope they continue and finish the season on a great note."
