UNITED WAY CAMPAIGN

The 2001 Behrend United Way Campaign began on October 10 and will take place for three weeks. This year's goal is set at $35,000. Faculty, staff, and students will be soliciting for donations.

The United Way also hopes that donors will contribute extra money to "The September 11 Fund," hoping to provide all needed resources to New York, Washington, D.C., and Somerset County. All money raised goes to the fund.

The United Way funds 39 agencies that support programs that help children, families, and seniors, among many other charities.

PHONE BOOK RECYCLING

Behrend janitors will be picking up outdated GTE and Talking Phone Books in the upcoming weeks. All funds received from the recycling will be used for the Food Bank; the books themselves will be recycled into insulation.

Please place all old phone books next to your trash receptacle.

A Closer Look Sand Mountain

Jeanine Noce, Ed Gabrys, Luka Lodico, Steve Merritt, and Ryan Stare play in Sand Mountain.

Sand Mountain, a play by Romulus Linney, will be presented in the Studio Theatre, on October 26, 27, 30, 31 and November 1, 2, and 3 at 8 p.m., and October 28 and November 4 at 2:30 p.m.

The play features two parts, Sand Mountain Matchmaking and Why The Lord Came To Sand Mountain. In the first part, Rebecca, played by Jeanine Noce, is sought after by four males all attempting to win her heart to hold her hand in marriage.

In the second half, The Lord and Saint Peter visit an unwed couple with 14 children.

Tony Elliot directs Sand Mountain.

Bookstore Bobbing

On Tuesday, October 23, the Student Bookstore in the Reed Union Building will be holding "Apple Tuesday." Students can bob for apples to receive a 10 percent discount coupon. Larger discounts can be won.
