The Cast of 'Sand Mountain' - Part 2

Tickets for the play "Sand Mountain" are now available at the Rub Desk. Call 898-6242 or purchase them in person. Seating is limited, so reservations are recommended. Tickets are $3 for students (with ID) and $5 for general admission. The play will run from Oct. 26 to Nov. 4.

Jeanine Noce

Jeanine Noce, a third semester Communications/Broadcast Journalism major, plays the role of Rebecca in the play.

"Rebecca is a very independent and strong-willed woman," said Noce. "She is not afraid to express her true feelings to the men that are courting her. She is an outsider who has just arrived in town and every man wants her to be his woman."

Her hobbies include acting, singing and dancing, and she's involved in the Honors Society Lambda Sigma, and the Behrend Choir. She is also the Arts and Entertainment editor for the Behrend Beacon. Jeanine has also been in such plays as "Babes in Arms," "Oliver" and "Anything Goes."

She advises anyone who is considering acting to "remember that every time you receive a part, there will be two more times that you won't receive anything at all! Keep your head high."

Luka LoDico

Luka LoDico, a fifth semester Pre-med student who carries three majors, performs the part of Clink Williams.

"Acting a certain role is only hard until you break through the barrier of letting yourself be someone else, which is up to the actor. After that point acting is just doing and saying what you have experienced a person like that to say. I enjoy watching characters like Clink Williams and I like playing them even better," said LoDico.

LoDico belongs to the Matchbox Players and has acted in the play "Philadelphia."

His favorite actors and actresses are James Dean, Catherine Zeta Jones, Angelina Jolie and Brad Pitt, to name a few.

LoDico advises anyone interested in acting to "do it! Everyone acts in one way or another in their lives, the key is to be able to use all those experiences of their lives (and use them) in acting and how they would like to act."

Ed Gabrys

Ed Gabrys, a seventh semester English Literature major, earned the role of Slate Foley.

He is a seasoned actor, having been in such plays as "Guys and Dolls," "Anything Goes," and "West Side Story," to name a few.

Ed likes weight training, hunting and role-playing, and his favorite actor is Russell Crowe.

He believes that anyone considering acting should remember, "acting is basically fooling the audience believing that you're somebody that you're not. When you step out on a stage, you shouldn't be an actor playing a character, you should be the character."

Pertaining to the role, Gabrys said, "this character has been more challenging than most, because I'm used to playing comic relief characters. Playing slate has required me to adopt a more intense stage presence. He's basically a crude, filthy, abusive man, who's used to getting what he wants through intimidation..."

Steve O' Donnell

Steve O' Donnell, a first semester Communications major, performs the roles of Vester and the 14 children.

"I find my characters very easy to play. I haven't had to adapt much because the part is a reflection of me," said O'Donnell.

O'Donnell belongs to the InterVarsity Christian Fellowship, and aspires to be a man of God.

He has acted in such plays as "Oklahoma," "Fiddler on the Roof" and "A Christmas Carol," to name a few.

O'Donnell advises anyone interested in acting to "not take it so seriously. If you go to the audition, go to have fun rather than getting a part. It is all about having fun. If you feel that it is a bit more complicated than that, then acting is not for you!"

He admits that he is excited for the play and is looking forward to seeing the audience's reaction to his roles.

Kool Karl's Krazy Korner!

"The Produce Section"

1. Why waste time and money showering at home? Steal some soap and shower under the sprinklers in the produce section. Warning: One must act fast for the sprinklers shut off after approximately three minutes. Make sure to wash the soap from your eyes! If you can't see, security will kick your ass as you attempt to escape! If successful, dry off in the paper towel aisle.

2. Have you ever weighed peaches in the produce section and found, to your dismay, that you couldn't find a combination of peaches that weighed three pounds? If so, here is what one should do: Take the peach and nibble on it, until enough peach has been eaten, making the scale weigh three pounds.

I hope you find this helpful!

Recipes for You!

Witches Hats

Ingredients:

You will need Keebler® fudge striped cookies, Hershey® Kisses and a tube of orange decorator icing.

Preparation

Turn cookies upside down so that the chocolate side is up. Use the orange decorator icing to pipe around the hole in the center of each cookie. Place an unwrapped Kiss on the icing circle. Finish by piping around the base of the kiss and drawing a little bow
