BEHREND WINTER OLYMPICS

~ The Behrend Winter Olympics will be held January 18 and 19. Registration will be held November 12-16 and December 3-7 from 11 a.m. until 2 p.m. outside of Bruno's. Each team will have five members (teams can be coed) to compete with. Several events will occur in which teams have a chance to win medals. The top team wins first prize, while the top three teams will receive prizes. Events take place indoors and outdoors. The Planet 93.9 will be broadcasting the Olympic events. All proceeds will go to benefit THON, which helps raise money for children with cancer.

FEED THE NEED

~ Feed the Need, running now through Nov. 17, is an effort to collect food for the Second Harvest Food Bank. Boxes will be placed around campus for food donations. Break-Out Day, where groups go door to door in the community collecting food, occurs on Nov. 10. For more information can contact Abby Long at asl147@psu.edu.

A Closer Look

SPEAKER SERIES

~ Peter Leyden will be speaking about "The Long Boom: A Future History of the World" on Monday at 7:30 p.m. in the McGarvey Commons. Leyden, a futurist, will tell how technology advances and economic events will make the path for future happenings. He will also speak about what he expects to happen over the next 20 years in business, technology, politics, society, and science. The lecture is free and open to students, faculty, staff, and the public.

JAZZ ENSEMBLE AND STUDIO SINGERS

~ On Tuesday at 8 p.m. in Bruno's, the Jazz Ensemble and Studio Singers will perform a plethora of music genres and styles. Chosen pieces will be characteristic of: seing, blues, Latin, and Afro-Cuban. A piece composed by lecturer in music and choir director Dr. Daniel Barnard will be performed. The 19-member Ensemble will be accompanied by the Studio Singers.

DINNER FOR SIX STRANGERS

~ Students are invited to attend the 14th Annual Thanksgiving Dinner For Six Strangers on Thursday at 5:30 p.m. in the Reed Wintergarden/McGarvey Commons. Students will share a table with Faculty and Staff to meet new friends and celebrate Thanksgiving. The dinner is free of charge; the reception begins at 5:30 p.m. and the dinner begins at 6 p.m. For more information, contact the Office of Student Activities.
