Looking for internships?
Need a job?

Penn State Behrend will sponsor the Spring Internship, Summer Job, and Career Fair on Wednesday, Feb. 27, from 12 p.m. - 4 p.m. in Reed McGarvey Commons. The event involves local and regional employers from a variety of organizations, and students who are in need of an internship or job are invited to attend and bring their resume!

SGA Open House

The Student Government Association will host its Open House on Wednesday, Feb. 27 from 11 a.m. - 2 p.m. in the SGA Office, located on the first floor of the Reed Building. Students are invited to come and see what SGA does, and what they can do to become a part of it. If you have any questions, contact SGA at 898-6220.

A Closer Look

Updates from Student Government

The 2002 SGA will have 11 vacant Senate seats, as well as a secretary position for the 2002-2003 school year. Students interested in becoming candidates may pick up their packets at the RUB Desk starting on Wednesday, and must obtain 50 signatures from full-time students by March 15. Candidates may run their own campaign, which will start on March 18 and will run until election day, which will be held on April 17 - 18. The 11 candidates with the most votes will earn a seat on the 2002-2003 Senate.

SGA elected Jacqueline Jackson and Scott Soltis to fill two empty Senate seats for the rest of the 2001-2002 school year. Jessi Dearolf replaces Katie Leary as the Panhellenic Council Representative.

SGA is now available at www.clubs.psu/BehrendSGA, and students can now have better access to Student Government. The new website, monitored by Senator Sundeep Bhatia, features pictures of all SGA members, committee information, the SGA Constitution, the goals and purpose of SGA, and much more. If you have any ideas for ways to improve the site to make it more student-friendly, contact SGA at 898-6220.
