

How well do you know your game? Welcome to the Beacon's NCAA Tournament Challenge!

2002 NCAA Division I Men's BASKETBALL CHAMPIONSHIP

The Specs:

In celebration of NCAA March Madness, the Beacon is holding a contest in which you pick the winners. If you are a Behrend student or faculty member, all you have to do is fill out this bracket and return it to the Beacon office - Suite B, next to the Back Room in the Reed Union Building.

• Entries must have your name, phone number, and e-mail someplace on the bracket.

• If the Beacon office is closed, slide your entry under the 2nd office door (farthest office back), or put it in the Beacon's mailbox (across from the mailroom in the Student Organizations' Suite A).

• Entries must be handed in by March 13; games begin on March 14.

• Visit www.finalfour.net/local/brackets.html

-or-

check the New York Times, USA Today, or Erie Times News available in the Readership

Program Boxes around campus after March 10 for the teams.

The Prizes:

• Grand Prize for correctly guessing both teams, winner, and score of championship game - $50 gift certificate to Tinseltown.

• 1st Prize for correctly guessing score of championship game - $25 gift certificate to Tinseltown.

• 2nd Prize for picking the most winners of the 63 games - $20 gift certificate to Media Play.

• 3rd Prize for picking the second most winners - $15 gift certificate to Media Play.

• 4th Prize for picking the third most winners - $10 gift certificate to Media Play.

• 5th Prize for correctly guessing all Final Four teams - $10 gift certificate to Tinseltown.

After the Final Four and Championship games are finished, the Beacon staff will evaluate the submitted brackets to determine winners. Winners will then be notified shortly thereafter.
