

ECAC meet pushes Behrend swimmers

by Lauren Packer
staff writer

Seventeen members of the fast and furious Behrend swim teams went to the Division III ECAC Championships in New Jersey this past weekend.

By qualifying earlier in the season, these swimmers earned a right to compete with the best of more than 10 Division III schools.

The Division III ECAC Championship isn't like any of the Lions other dual meets. For three intense days, swimmers competed in every possible event. There were no preliminary events or semi-finals to put them in the finals of their races. Rather, every race was a final heat. Behrend had only one shot to place in an event, making the three-day meet that much tougher and intense.

"This was a great mid-season meet for them," said head coach Josh Heynes. "Most of them had personal bests or close to personal bests in the events that they swam or dove in. Overall, it was a good experience for them to see how a three-day meet feels like."

On the men's side, Behrend took nine swimmers and two divers to New Jersey. Divers Michael Sandretto and Tom Vignolini competed in 11 dives instead of the usual six dives required in dual meets. The result was that Sandretto recorded a new Behrend record for the 3 meter with 235.4 points.

The swim team had three top 10 finishes. J.R. DeLorenzo captured two of the three finishes. DeLorenzo placed fourth in the 200 backstroke with a time of 2:03:72, dropping almost five seconds from his previous time. DeLorenzo then placed fifth in the 100 backstroke, recording a time of 56.22.

The only other member of the men's team to record an individual top ten performance was Travis Kochel. Kochel placed eighth in the 50 freestyle.

The men's relay teams placed 10th in four relays and just missed a 10th place finish in a fifth relay. The men placed 10th in the 200 medley, 800 freestyle, 400 medley, and 400 freestyle relays. Ben Atkins, J.R. DeLorenzo, Jeff Howard, and Joe Deely set a new record in the 800 freestyle relay.

For the women's team, six swimmers made the trip. Christine Williams was the sole woman to place in the top 10 for Behrend. Williams placed ninth in the 200 backstroke. Williams came close to a top 10 finish in the 100 backstroke, but eventually finished 13th.

The women finished 12th in the 800 yd. Freestyle relay. Williams, Danielle Rearick, Loren Stachowiak, and Tara Braden combined for the best relay finish of the meet with a time of 9:04:76.

Both the men's and women's seasons are far from over. The schedule for the spring semester is full of important meets. The teams get a short break during the term break but then it is back to the grind on Jan 3 when practices resume. The Lions will have a chance to drop the added holiday pounds in sunny Vero Beach, Fl And Heynes has just the training regimen that will get them in shape and enjoy Florida at the same time.

"Florida will be the most intense week of training yet. We are training in a 50-meter pool, which is twice the size of ours. We will also be enjoying the beach while we do our land activities. This is the time we really get to push them," said Heynes.

And you thought vacations were supposed to be fun.

Penn State's Johnson irked by negative Heisman campaigning

By Dick Jerardi

Knight Ridder Newspapers (KRT)

STATE COLLEGE, Pa. — Larry Johnson really would like to enjoy this whole Heisman Trophy thing. Instead, he has found himself in the middle of a negative campaign that seems more suited for politics than college football.

"A lot of people said I should be enjoying it, that it's a lifetime experience, but I'm still in a fighting mood because I hear more bad than I hear good," Johnson said Wednesday afternoon in the Beaver Stadium media room.

"It's good to hear from the Penn State fans, but so many people run their mouth that really don't know what it takes to have a season like this . . . I concentrate on those people more than I do on my own success."

Johnson rushed for 2,015 yards. His 8.03 yards per carry is an NCAA record. But . . . There are critics. And they are loud. ESPN's Trev Alberts has been especially loud.

"Trev Alberts said during the bowl-selection (show) that I wasn't going to be able to gain a hundred yards because (Auburn's) defense was ranked this and that and I don't do good against good defenses," Johnson said.

"And then I hear that I shouldn't get it because of (Penn State's) three losses. I don't know how many times I heard that. Then, I wasn't nominated in the beginning and the defenses I was playing were weak."

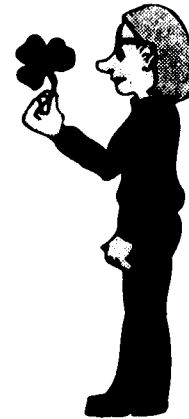

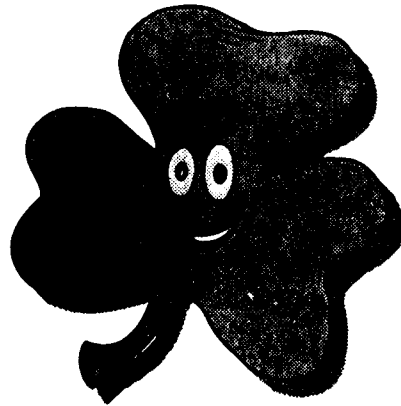

There are more than 900 Heisman voters. They include former Heisman winners. He spoke by phone Tuesday with Tennessee Titans running back Eddie George, the 1995 Heisman winner from Ohio State.

"It was reassuring for me to talk to somebody who I idolized," Johnson said. "That was more positive than most of the stuff that's going around about how I shouldn't win it because of this and that."

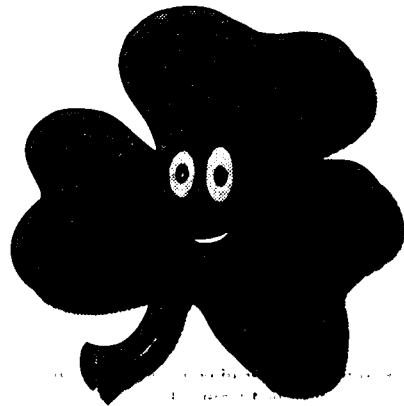

For some reason, this Heisman debate has become very negative and almost personal. Johnson seems to be taking the most criticism, but the others have taken some, as well.

"I don't know, either," Johnson said when asked about that phenomenon. "Usually, nobody likes to be on the underdog's side. Everybody wants to go and be the bandwagon person. That's fine if that's what they choose to do."
