Mark Your Calendars

Women's Football Team at Behrend

Join Women Today and meet members of the Syracuse women's football team - The Syracuse Sting, on Saturday, March 29, at 1 p.m. in the McGarvey Commons. Talk to members of Women Today at recruitment party at 12 p.m. before the speakers in the Commons. Free refreshments will be provided and all are welcome to attend. If you have any questions, please contact Carrie Rogers at crr143@psu.edu.

Astronomy Open House

Come to the next Open House Night in Astronomy, on Thursday, April 3, at 7 p.m. in Otto Science 101. NASA Ames biologist, Dr. Lynn Rothschild, will give a brief overview of the role of UV radiation in astrobiology, with an emphasis on its role in biological processes. The open house is free and open to the public, and an observing through the Behrend Mehalso Observatory will follow, weather permitting. For more information, please call 898-6105.

A Closer Look

TKE Ice Plunge

The brothers of Tau Kappa Epsilon will raise money for the Ronald Reagan Alzheimer's Foundation by jumping into Lake Erie at Presque Isle, on Sunday at noon. Their goal is to raise a large amount of money to send to the Association, and they are asking for your contributions. Every dollar donated could help save millions of lives. They have already raised over $1,400, and are climbing every day.

Women's History Month

Jennifer Baumgardner and Amy Richards will speak on Friday at 7 p.m. in the McGarvey Commons. They are the authors of "Manifesta: Young Women, Feminism, and the Future," and will bring a new point of view for both college-age men and women about politics, social justice, and equality in pay and employment issues. It is free and open to the public.

There will be an MBA Information forum for undergraduate Behrend students, on Wednesday at noon 5 p.m. Refreshments will be served and all are welcome to attend. Contact Ann at x7255 for information.
