CREATIVE WRITERS SERIES OPENS WITH FICTION WRITER

Fiction writer Melanie Rae Thon will open Penn State Behrend's Creative Writers Speaker Series on Thursday, September 25 at 7:00 p.m. with a reading in the Smith Chapel. Her appearance is free and open to the public.

Thon's most recent novel is "Sweet Hearts" (Washington Square Press, 2002). She is also the author of Meteors in August and Iona Moon and the story collections Girls in the Grass and First, Body.

Thon has taught at Emerson College, Syracuse University, the University of Massachusetts, and the Ohio State University. She divides her time between the pacific Northwest and Salt Lake City, where she teaches at the University of Utah.

The Creative Writers Speaker Series is co-sponsored by the Mary Behrend Cultural Fund, the Clarence and Eugenie Baumann Smith Fund, and the School of Humanities and Social Sciences. For more information about the series, contact the School of Humanities and Social Sciences at 814-898-6108.

HAPPY ANNIVERSARY

Penn State Behrend's Child Care Center will celebrate the tenth anniversary of its opening on Wednesday, Sept. 17, with an open house from 5-7:00 p.m. at the center. The Center is located at 5450 Merwin Lane in Knowledge Park.

"The Child Care Center has cared for more than 800 children over the past 10 years," said Eunice Moore, director.

"The staff has had the privilege of knowing many wonderful children and families and of watching the center develop a strong tradition of high-quality child care." The center currently serves 91 children between the ages of six weeks and six years.

The center moved from its previous location at 5650 Station Road in 2002 to accommodate construction of the new Eastside Access Highway. Children took easily to the center's new 8,600-square-foot building in the wooded Knowledge Park setting. In addition to two rooms each for infants, toddlers and pre-school students, it also includes a multipurpose room, a research and conference room and an office for the director. Several parents installed fencing to create an outdoor play area for the children.

"This building was designed specifically for the children," said Ken Miller, director of Student Affairs, who oversees the center. "It's theirs right down to the pint-sized plumbing. It is a bright and cheerful location for both children and staff, and we look forward to serving children in this area for years to come."
