It's Time For Final Exams Once Again...

Final exams are upon us once again! Here are some tips to prepare yourself for this week of grueling studying and cumulative test taking.

~ Don't start studying the night before! You can't possibly cram a semester's worth of information into your brain in less than 24 hours.

~ Forget about pulling an all-nighter. You need at least four hours of sleep in order to function.

~ Focus on notes and what the teacher has lectured about, rather than reading all those chapters in the book that you are behind in.

~ Study in a quiet place, away from any distractions. Studying with friends will just lead to conversation about material other than what will be on the final exam.

~ Breathe! Stay calm! If a question is too difficult, skip it and come back to it later.

~ Reread and double check all your answers, just in case.

GOOD LUCK ON FINALS EVERYONE!!!
