The Beacon seeks writers from all majors

The Beacon is currently in search of writers from all majors and semester standings. Even if journalism is not your major, you can still write for the Beacon. Our weekly club meetings are held Mondays at 5 p.m. in Library 12. If you can't make the meetings, the staff will work with your schedule.

The Beacon is an actively registered club with SGA. It is not necessary to be enrolled in Commu 001 to work on the Beacon. You can devote as little or as much time to the newspaper as your schedule allows. Whether you choose to write three articles a week, or write once every three weeks, it is up to you.

Have a voice on the campus and be heard. We circulate 2,250 copies among 4,000 students, faculty, staff and campus visitors. The Behrend Beacon is a student-published newspaper, by the students for the students.

Get your meetings, activities, announcements, etc. on our Calendar of Events Page!

All submissions must be received by Monday at 5 p.m. for publication in that week's issue. Send submissions to the attention of the Calendar of Events Page to behrcoll3@aol.com; put information in our campus mailbox, bottom floor, Reed Union Building, near e-mail kiosk and next to restrooms; or call us at 898-6488. While you should include all possible information, submissions may be edited due to space constraints; please contact the Beacon for special requests.
