PENN STATE NEWS

Lady Lions get first Jordan Center sellout for women's basketball

Penn State women's basketball game vs. Michigan was officially a sell out. It's the first time the Lady Lions played in front of a sold-out Bryce Jordan Center. The capacity of the Bryce Jordan Center is 15,261, which makes the sellout the largest attendance figure for a women's basketball game in the Big Ten Conference this year. The Lady Lions' old home attendance record of 13,305 was set Jan. 18 vs. Illinois. The Lady Lions did sell out once before when they played Iowa on Feb. 6, 1994, at the then-7,264-seat Rec Hall.

Five Nittany Lion football players invited to NFL scouting combine

A quintet of Penn Staters have been invited to the National Football League's Scouting Combine this week in Indianapolis. Cornerback Rich Gardner, wide receiver Tony Johnson, placekicker David Kimball, tight end Sean McHugh and linebacker Deryck Toles have been invited to participate in the Feb. 18-24 event at the RCA Dome. More than 300 players will be involved in the combine. The NFL Draft is April 24-25. A school record four Nittany Lions were chosen in the first round of the 2003 NFL Draft. Penn State was seventh nationally with 32 of Coach Joe Paterno's former players on NFL rosters during the 2003 season.
