Retreat observes Women's History Month

COOL WOMEN and the Women's/Gender Studies Minor are holding a two-day retreat at the Bel-Aire Clarion Hotel on March 20 in celebration of Women's History month and International Women's Day. For a $20 refundable deposit students get transportation, meals and a chance to discuss women's issues, watch women's films and hear speakers. Contact Dr. Colleen Kelley at x6392 or at cek@psu.edu or Katie Ranalli at kmr247@psu.edu.

Storm water management is in motion

On Thursday at 11 a.m. there will be a meeting in the MISC Studio in Kochel to discuss a water management plan to minimize the discharge of pollutants on campus. Dr. Thomas Wortman and Director of Operations John Ream will work to develop a strategy. It will include public education outreach, involvement and participation, detection and elimination of illicit discharges, run-off control at construction sites, post-construction storm water management and pollution prevention, including good housekeeping practices. Go to <http://greencampus.psu.edu> or contact Wortman at 814-898-6160 or twortman@psu.edu.

The Vagina Monologues come to Behrend

A participatory reading of The Vagina Monologues by Eve Ensler will be held March 19 at 6 p.m. in the Smith Chapel living room. The event is hosted and sponsored by COOL WOMEN and the Women's/Gender Studies Minor in celebration of Women's History Month. Admission to the readings is free. Contact the Women's/Gender Studies Minor office at 898-6392 for more information.
