Monday is National Self-Injury Awareness Day. It is estimated that 1 percent of all Americans suffer from self-injury. Additionally self-injury can affect anyone. The purpose of Self-Injury Awareness day is to increase awareness among health-care professionals about the symptoms and dangers of self-injury.

For more information on self-injury or the awareness day go to: www.selfinjury.org.

A Closer Look

The Association of Women in Communications (AWC) will hold a Dr. Seuss birthday celebration on Sunday from 2 p.m. to 5 p.m. The event is being held to promote Read Across America and Seuss's 100th birthday. Activities will include face painting, arts and crafts, games and readings of different Dr. Seuss books to encourage reading in young children. Prizes will be given out, and refreshments will be available. The birthday celebration will end with a birthday cake for Dr. Seuss.
