Where did you buy your textbooks this semester?

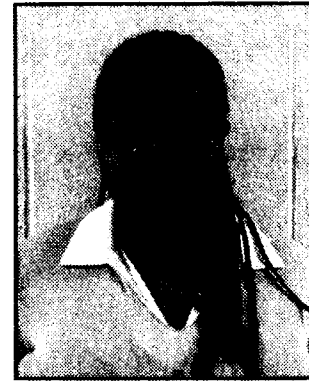

"This semester I pre-ordered my books from the bookstore. I heard students talking about getting their books at half price from the Internet, so I'm thinking of trying that next semester."
Nick Cherico
 DUS, 01

"I went online and bought most of my books off Amazon.com. It is a lot cheaper that way."
Sara Wolfe
 DUS, 01

"Unfortunately I bought my books at the bookstore...but I plan on taking them back. I am definitely switching to Half.com to purchase books next semester."
Christian O'Connor
 BIOBD, 05

"This semester I bought my books at the bookstore, but if I had a credit card I would go online and order them."
Xenia Tomlinson
 PSHBA, 03

"I got my books at the bookstore partially because Behrend wouldn't release the information I needed to order them. I probably will get them here next semester also because it takes too long through the mail."
Mike Hall
 ACNTG, 05

Soccer teams to kick off season

Herb Lauffer Tournament will be held this weekend

The Men's and women's soccer teams will be starting off their seasons this weekend. Both teams will be competing in the annual Herb Lauffer Tournament, which is held here at Behrend.

The men's team is looking for a repeat of last year's success. After suffering a tough loss in the first round of the tourney last year, the men picked up play and won their second round match against Hiram.

The team went on to produce a 13-4-2 regular season record. Topping off its season, the team won AMCC along with receiving its first ever bid to nationals.

The women's team is also looking to defend its 2003 Herb Lauffer title. After building a 12-7-1 record last season the women fell to Frostburgh in the AMCC Championship game.

This year the Lions are looking to build on its record and make another AMCC run. With 13 returning veterans, the team is joined by 12 newcomers and first-year mentor Patrick O'Driscoll.

The men are scheduled to play Hiram on Saturday starting at 10 a.m. followed by Baldwin-Wallace on Sunday starting at 12 p.m. The women will be taking on Alfred at 2 p.m. All games will be played at the Behrend Fields.
