The dastardly Dan Sedan dishes delightfully deplorable, dauntingly dubious, and disparagingly despicable advice

By Dan Snedden
assistant news editor

Dear Dan "The Man" Sedan,
I'm in charge of the humor page for my college newspaper, but I can't think of what to write! The best I could come up with was trying to write a terribly lame advice column. I know that I'm not very witty but I'm giving it my best shot. I would appreciate it if you could give me some ideas. Please help me out, my editor is really on my back about it and if this week's issue doesn't go well, the humor page will be canceled!

Nad Neddens Penn State Harborcreek, the Dnerheb Egelloc
Dear Mr. Neddens,

Your problem is simple. You are not funny; you should not do comedy. You should not even attempt to be humorous. Your articles are not funny. They, like you, are offensive and reek of foul odor from the lowest form of life, namely you. The best thing you can do for your pathetic attempt at a humor page is to crawl under a rock and die. If not for you, then for all of our sakes. You disgust me you sick, talentless hack.

Dear Dr. Dan Sedan,
I am an albino and I'm always afraid I'll get lost in the snow and no one will find me. How can I avoid this?

White in Spite, PA
Dear White,
Many people share your problem. Sadly, you are afflicted with albinism. Interestingly, 0.000025 percent of this campus is albino. Albinism is caused by using too much bleach in your laundry or contact with albinos (more commonly known as white people). This is a communicable disease and medical science has yet to find a cure.

Fortunately, I have a few suggestions that will prevent you from getting lost in the snow. Get a black dog to lead you around; wear reflectors; paint yourself orange; dress as a goth; become a rapper and wear gaudy jewelry and have your entourage point at the bling; or stop going outdoors.

Dear Dr. Dan Sedan,
In the winter my feet always get really sweaty in my boots. What can I do to stop this problem?

Sweaty in South-Bend
Dear Sweaty,

There are a number of solutions for this problem. Two are very obvious: walk around bare-footed, or cut your feet off. If these solutions seem a bit impractical, you're in luck, for I too am a survivor of Sweaty Feet Syndrome (SFS). SFS Anonymous is a support group for people plagued with SFS, they provide emotional support and alternative footwear to alleviate fellow sufferers. SFS Awareness Week is Feb. 13-19. Survivors and families will be gathering for open discussions and suggestions for remedies. The conference will be held on, Feb. 15 from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. in McGarvey Commons. All are welcome to attend.

Dear Dan "The Ladies Man" Sedan,
My boyfriend never listens to me and I can't stand it! I used to really like him but since he's stopped listening to me my feelings for him are starting to weaken. What should I do?

Dear Dan "The Man" Sedan,
I work at a pharmacy and I need to know what chemicals it takes to decompose a body REALLY fast. Time IS a factor; I need to know by Monday... this is for a Biology class. Really.

Knot Guilty, Erie - I mean Pittsburgh PA

Dear Inconspicuous,
Well, I'm glad you're in that biology class, too... I certainly wouldn't know anything about this subject. If a base solution with a pH level of less than 2 would do it, I definitely wouldn't know. However you should be sure to get plenty of sunshine, fresh air and heat, but don't get burnt. If you do it will smell which may attract unwanted attention. But I wouldn't know anything about that either. Next question please!

HVIZDAK'S PHOTO OF THE WEEK

Ghost of Bruno terrorizes Bruno's. The spirit of the fabled canine for which the campus cafe was named has recently spooked up quite a commotion by frightening students who approach the condiment cart. The Behrend family was unavailable for comment.

Behrend hires new professor!

Professor Joe Stalin has been hired as the head of Behrend's School of Tyrannical and Authoritarian Studies.

"I will work closely with Police and Safety," said Stalin. "We should have an officer on duty on every corner, in every building and in every dorm room."

Stalin wants not only to revamp Behrend's School of Tyrannical and Authoritarian Studies, but he has a five year plan to, "either coerce or crush all those who do not submit to the authority of the People's School of Tyrannical and Authoritarian Studies. We do not want to use force, but if we must deprive the people of basic human rights to make them all equal in our utopian society of oppression for all, by all, then I don't care who we must kill - I mean, resocialize to accomplish this."

Behrend Rocks!

Hurricane force rock hit Behrend Friday evening around 9 p.m. 18 injured, five missing, presumed dead. Stephen Wolfe escaped by Rushing to take a Magic Carpet Ride, saving Foreigner exchange student Tom Sawyer, and earning the title of Juke Box Hero. Baba O'Riley, Whoever that is, described the situation as a "teenage wasteland." In response, SAF has announced they will fit the Reed building with rocket boosters and fly it to Boston.

Beacon Long Term Weather Forecast:

Ragnarok hits Behrend.

Gotterdammerung will soon begin. This is Fimbulvetr, the winter of winters, three consecutive winters with no summer in between. First Balder will be cut down by Loki's mistletoe, thrown by Hod. Midgard will freeze. Skoll will eat the sun, and Hati will eat the moon. The stars will go out.

Fjalar and Gullinkambi will crow. Loki and Fenrir will break their chains. Jormungand will invade the land and his leaving the sea will release Naglfar to sail under Hymir's command. Loki will lead an attack on Asgard. Surt will lead the fiery giants from Muspell to join him. Hel will send the ship of the dead, with Loki at the helm. Hiemdall will sound his horn. Gjall, throughout the nine worlds. On the field of Vidgard, the battle will be fought. Fenrir will swallow Odin, only to be ripped apart by Vidar. Loki and Hiemdall will die at each other's hands. Thor will slay Jormutgand and perish from the venom. Garm and Tyr will fall in battle against each other. Surt's fire will destroy Freyr, along with Asgard and Midgard. Finally, Earth will sink into the sea. Forecast based on Ruindar1000.

Beacon Horoscopes

By Dan Snedden
assistant news editor and psychic hotline consultant

ARIES- You find yourself in a cold, desolate, dark and snow-covered place. Literally and metaphorically, that is.

TAURUS- Red meat is not an option when you find yourself on a blind date with a vegan! You can take heart in the fact that the date will end terribly and you will end up spending the remainder of the evening laying on your couch stuffing your face with bacon in an attempt to eat away your loneliness.

GEMINI- As you have no friends, you will waste your days away playing computer solitaire. Don't look at it as a sad, challenge! After all, there are more combinations to computer solitaire than there are seconds that have passed since time began.

CANCER- You will go fishing and catch a magical fish. The fish will grant you three wishes, you will waste the first two on frivolous things such as happiness and love. When you decide to use the last wish on what really counts (that being material things) you will die. Painfully.

LEO- Alignment of planets will have no weight on your life in any way. If you must "consult the stars" before making any decisions I suggest that you get out of the dark ages you backwards, socially inept dolt. It's a gimmick, get over it.

VIRGO- Blick-Mama! Ich schreibe auf Deutsch! Ich sollte das für die Ruhe des Jahres tun. Wenn ich tue, dann kann ich Leute ohne sie das Wissen beleidigen!

LIBRA- You will befriend an eccentric scientist who plans to build a time machine out of a Delorean. After many space-time adventures, you will finally realize that humans weren't meant for time travel. You will marry your significant other and live an otherwise boring life.

SCORPIO- Always look on the bright side of life.

SAGITTARIUS- Tomorrow your mother will call and tell you who your real parents are. It turns out that you are the heir to the Burgundian throne. The evil Prime Minister exiled you as a baby and you were raised by a breed of chimpanzees native to Burgundy. Your adoptive parents (who are truly renegade linguists at the time on the lam in Burgundy) found you as a small child and took you in.

CAPRICORN- The stars are tired right now and won't tell me your horoscope because they have a few chapters to read for political science and an eight o'clock class tomorrow.

AQUARIUS- You are not yourself today. You should be wary of Sagittarius, Sadducees, salivation, Sasquatch, and satire.

PISCES- This is a turbulent time in your love life. A time will come when words just aren't enough, make your points by brandishing a weapon!
