BEHREND BRIEFS

Penn State Erie, the Behrend College is ranked among the best colleges in the North according to the U.S. News and World Report. Penn State Behrend is ranked 15 among the 66 public universities in the eleven state region.

Among all public colleges and universities in Pennsylvania (in all U.S. News categories), Penn State Behrend has the lowest student to faculty ratio (15:1). Penn State Behrend is ranked in the "Best Universities-Master's" category.

The Presidents' Council of the Allegheny Mountain Collegiate Conference (AMCC) is sponsoring a program to promote better sportsmanship by spectators at athletic events. With the help of a grant from the NCAA, the AMCC presidents are leading a conference-wide campaign called "Be Loud. Be Proud. Be Positive." The AMCC Presidents' Council is asking for support from students, parents, friends, alumni, faculty and staff to help make this program a success.

Maintenance Operations will be replacing a main water valve at Perry Hall. This five-hour inconvenience will begin at 7 a.m. Monday morning, September 5, and will affect Perry Hall, Senat Hall and the Reed Union Building. Due to the Labor Day holiday, the Reed Union Building will be relatively unaffected because all offices will be closed and Bruno's Café is not scheduled to open until 4 p.m.
