Once again, rapper Sean Combs has changed his stage name, at least in Great Britain. Combs' current stage name, Diddy, was already being used by a London based record producer and Combs was forced to alter the year old nickname. This has inspired...

The Top Five Aliases Of Sean Combs

1. Puff Daddy – The original, you gotta love it
2. Puffy – (circa 1995) Seems so huggable at this stage
3. P. Diddy – (circa 2001) More dancy, I like that.
4. Diddy – (circa 2005) The P really was getting between him and his fans
5. Honey Combs – The awesome new British name for Combs.

The way too personal ad

First off, I'm kind of a big deal. People know me. I've got a lot going for me. For one, I am just extremely handsome. See the photo to the left.

I work at a television station. I am the street team manager for the Lion Entertainment Board and I know a lot of famous people. That's not nearly enough about me but there is other business to attend to.

My free time is precious but I am looking for someone to share it with. Below is a list of qualifications I am looking for in a young lady.

I am not asking for much. I am looking for a female between the ages of 19-21. She should be no taller than 5'6" and must be a fox. I like to cook so you better have a good stomach for that. Another big must is a great taste in music and a love for going to concerts. You've got to be a classy lady as well as intellectual, and at the same time have a good sense of humor. If you want to know more just send me an email at baraymond03@yahoo.com.

Notice: Alcohol should only be consumed by those of legal drinking age and only in moderation

Due to liability concerns Aunt Mary Jean has decided to limit you and your friends to only one drink at their house or tailgate. The good news is that Uncle Bill is in charge of the cups (see attachment).

Love,
Dad

The Jeff Goldblum game

By Ben Raymond
humor editor

The actor Jeff Goldblum, may be best known for his roles in films such as "Jurassic Park" or "Independence Day," has inspired a new game.

In his film roles he is always faced with an enormous problem. In order to figure it out he starts with one word that seems completely unrelated and begins a nonsensical rant to come up with a solution. Whether you are faced with an alien sized problem or just have time to kill, this may be for you.

This is a great new game to play with your friends. It is also a reason to stop using your dictionary to balance your desk or the table. All you need is a friend and a dictionary.

One person flips through the pages and picks out two random words for the other person and they have to relate the words to each other.

The following is an example of how to play the game. The two randomly selected words are orange and pancreas. If you get lost reading this do not be worried, it was hard enough to write.

Orange...orange is the color of carrots. Rabbits eat carrots. Bugs Bunny was a rabbit. Bugs Bunny always said, "What's up Doc?" Doctors give shots of insulin. Insulin is a by product of the pancreas.

And there you have it. If this was not enough of an example here is a second one. The next two words are Post-its and snot.

Post-its... Post-its are yellow. Yellow is the color of sunshine. Sunshine is the inspiration for Sunny-D. Dee Sieberkrob is the executive director of Lion Entertainment Board. I was bored in class on Monday. Mondays are the worst day of the week. I get very weak when I'm sick. So sick that snot runs out of my nose.

And one more time, if things weren't clear enough, give this last one a try. The words for this one are pocket and armadillo.

Pocket... Polly Pocket. "Along Came Polly" is a movie starring Jennifer Aniston. Jennifer Aniston was on Friends. Friends, why can't we be friends? Smashmouth did a cover of "Why Can't We be Friends." Smashmouth sang in Shrek. Shrek is an Ogre. Ogres live in swamps. Swamps have a lot of water. Water is carried in cacti. Cacti are green. Kevin Federline is red-green colorblind. Armadillos are colorblind, too.

This is just an indication of the fun you can have with this game. If you and your friends come up with any good ones, send them into the Beacon.
