

LOCAL DINING

Throughout the semester, the Beacon will be reaching out to local restaurants to bring their weekly specials and coupons to Penn State Behrend students.

As more restaurants advertise, we believe we can use this space to display the quality and value of local restaurants and serve as a directory for the local food that students like most. From fine dining to quick service, we hope to bring a variety of choices to the campus.

We need your help, though; if you have a local restaurant that you frequent, or a favorite delivery place, let us know about them. We can feature them in a weekly food review, and bring their specials to Behrend students.

For suggestions or advertising inquiries, contact Connor Sattely at cis5060@psu.edu
