Restaurant review: APPLEBEE'S

By Connor Sattely

By the time that most students leave Penn State Behrend, they have most likely brought visiting parents, friends, or a late-night study group to the nearby Applebee's.

Possibly the best thing about the restaurant is the quality and professionalism of its staff. The employees of the restaurant are always friendly, helpful, and quick with service.

Service aside, Applebee's menu caters to the public, but offers great options for college students as well.

Their options to pick several items in a combination order for lunch lets customers try many different options in a meal at the restaurant. Their "dessert shooters" also let customers sample several different types of dessert, from apple caramel supreme to a chocolate mousse.

The entrees at the restaurant are always well-prepared, quickly delivered, and satisfying. The portions aren't ridiculously large like some other local restaurants - you get just the right amount of food to call it a full meal.

One dish that has been gaining in popularity at Applebee's is the Cheddar Jack Macaroni with Chicken. As one of their pasta bowl entrees, this dish is served with piping hot Cheddar Jack cheese over Macaroni with slices of grilled chicken added in.

Other dishes have impressed customers as well. The buffalo chicken strips at the restaurant have a great sauce that makes them just spicy enough to be enjoyed by anyone.

Fiesta lime chicken is also a great choice on the menu. It is healthy, but flavorful, and is a great Mexican-type dish.

College students have also appreciated the laid-back, intimate setting of the restaurant. Most agree that it's a good place to bring friends, or bring a date.

Applebee's also accepts LionCash, which is a huge draw for Behrend students. The convenience of having LionCash as a payment option makes Applebee's an even more enticing choice for local dining in Erie.
