

The week's sights and scenes caught on camera

Erin Billey, far left, speaks to a group of Freshman Orientation leaders for all three days of orientation events.

Comedian Ronnie Burton performs for students in McGarvey Commons. Every seat was filled and a number of students had to stand.

A Freshman cheers out for Penn State during orientation.

PHOTOS BY DANIEL J. SMITH
photo editor.

The Penn State Behrend Cross Country team practiced in the rain on Monday to prepare for the Cross Country Invitational at Westminster College next weekend.

Chi Alpha hosted a pizza party for all students in the Student Building on Monday. The club expects to increase membership this Fall semester.

Theta Phi Alpha held a barbecue with other sororities on Sunday. The sorority has over 20 members this year.