after losing badly in the number one doubles final.

"Singles is my game," Christman said. "I have played her before. I knew that I could beat her. It was hard losing in doubles, but I wanted that singles title too much to let the loss get me down."

The match between Christman and Dannenfeler pitted the AMCC's top two players against each other. The two went undefeated in AMCC play, except when they faced each other. The rivals split matches one to one in the regular season to set up Christman's winning effort in a grudge match at the AMCC Championships. "It was important for me to eliminate any errors and stay focused," Christman said. "I played one of the best matches I have ever played, so it was really fun competition."

Cattron defeated Altoona's Emily Knott (6-2, 6-4) in the second singles final.

Lasher, Calvert, Durante and Hobaugh continued Behrend's path of destruction.

Calvert, playing with a severe shoulder injury, won the number four singles final, (7-6, 6-0), over Frostburg State's Megan Martin. "I rank this AMCC title the highest among the rest we have won," Calvert said. "I ranked it the highest because I played in my last collegiate tennis match."

Hobaugh defeated Frostburg State's Jannil Sites (6-3, 6-0) in the number six singles final.

"This title will always be very near and dear to me," Hobaugh said. "While fighting for the victory on Sunday, I also kept in mind that it was the end of my last season. It was very bittersweet. I'm so proud of everyone's performance there."

Calvert and Hobaugh were cornerstones in building the women's tennis program's dynasty. Each displayed humbleness and gratification in reminiscing their exceptional reign as part of the AMCC's best women's tennis program.

"Over the past four years, I have had the privilege to play among many talented tennis players who love this sport," Hobaugh said. "I've made some of my closest friends through tennis."

Calvert and Hobaugh each noted their gratitude towards coach Barger and expressed how rewarded they feel.

"Playing collegiate tennis was a dream of mine," Calvert said.

"I couldn't have been more fortunate to play for this team," Hobaugh said.

Soccer team defeats Medaille, 3-0

LIONS JUMP TO FIRST PLACE IN THE AMCC LATE IN THE SEASON

The Behrend women's soccer team continued their seven-game winning streak, defeating the Medaille Mavericks 3-0 in a vital AMCC matchup.

Lions freshman Valerie Wagner scored the first two goals of the game, assisted by Kourtney Gasparovic.

"I knew this was an important game for my team and my adrenaline was just rushing through me," Wagner said. "I was so pumped up once I got the first goal in the last 10 minutes of the first half. I wanted to give us another victory."

The last goal of the game was chipped off the goal post by sophomore Glennis Robash, deflecting past the Medaille goalkeeper.

Behrend took control early in the game and would continue to manage the Mavericks' zone for most of the game.

Behrend had a total of 13 shots on net with several close saves by Maverick goalie Brittany DeBole.

Medaille only had five shots on net, two of which came from junior midfielder Chelsea Buzyniski.

Behrend senior goalkeeper Kayla Frost earned a shut-out win.

"The game went really well,"

Frost said. "Personally, I think it's the best we have played all year, which is encouraging because we haven't hit our peak yet."

In order to clinch their first place rank, Behrend must continue to win throughout conference play, but they are taking it one step at a time.

"With a conference game left we aren't really thinking about playoffs too much," Frost said. "We are taking it one game at a time, but we are continuing to practice hard and maintain our focus of our goal, which is to get the top spot in the AMCC."

If Behrend continues their winning streak they will also be granted home field advantage throughout the playoffs.

The win put the Lions in first place for AMCC, with a conference record of 7-0-1.

The team will travel to Mount Aloysius (0-6) in conference play, Oct. 24 and have one conference game remaining.
