

MLK Week Event Calendar

EYES ON THE PRIZE

America's Civil Rights Movement 1954-1985

Eyes on the Prize: America's Civil Rights Years 1954-1964

January 19 and January 20

John M. Lacey, L...

Dramatic footage...

I Have a Need

January 18
McGarvey Commons - 11:00 a.m. - 1:30 p.m.

I Have a Need is a visitation of King's "I Have a Dream" speech, but featuring the options of Behrend students regarding their position as so-called ethnic, racial, sexual or gender "minority"/"majority" and what they "need" in order to be successful. The presentation includes music by vocal ensemble Harbor Light. (Performance at 12)

The Challenges Faced by the Students We Serve: Working with Students with Disabilities

January 22
McGarvey Commons, Noon - 1:15 p.m.

A Panel Discussion Led by: Michelle Brown (Coordinator of Disability Services), Sue Daley (Staff Psychologist), and Andy Herrera (Director of Educational Equity Programs)

Political Debate, Domestic and World Affairs: Campus' Young Democrats and Republicans

January 21
Bruno's Cafe, 7:00 p.m.

Moderated by the President of the Political Science Society, representatives from each group will discuss various issues including:

- Afghanistan,
- the economy
- and government's role, gay rights, gun control, and health care, among others. Refreshments will be served.

Willie Baptist Re-igniting MLK Jr.'s Poor People's Campaign

January 24
Smith Chapel - 5:30 p.m.

Followed by Q&A Dinner and Discussion Session at 6:30 p.m.

Willie Baptist is a formerly homeless father who came out of the Watts uprisings, the Black Student Movement of Los Angeles, CA riots in 1965. With 40 years of experience as an organizer, Willie has worked with the United Steelworkers, the National Union of the Homeless, the Kensington Welfare Rights Union, the National Welfare Rights Union, the Poor People's Economic Human Rights Campaign, and many other networks. Willie currently serves as Scholar-in-Residence and Coordinator of the Poverty Scholars Program at the Poverty Initiative, an organization led by the poor and the dedicated to end poverty.

