THON kicks off home stretch of fundraising

ALLY ORLANDO
news editor

THON is a non-profit student-run organization that raises money for research and support for kids with pediatric cancer. All of the money made through fundraising goes to the Four Diamonds Fund to pay for vouchers, food, travel and whatever the family may need while they stay at the Hershey Medical Center.

THON is currently in its third of four weekends in the fundraising season. Their window for collection opens on Friday and Saturday from 8:00 a.m. until dark and on Sunday from 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. The fundraising season ends in a 46-hour dance marathon.

Carly Lapp, co-chair, says that although running THON is what she expected it to be, it is still a lot of work. On top of fundraising, Lapp and her co-chair, Erin Moran, are working toward making it easier for future THON chairs. They are also "hoping to get more student involvement this season," Lapp said.

"It's hard, because it's a big campus. People are already involved with fraternities and sororities, but other than that we're just looking to break last year's total. It was around $29,000 and keep increasing it every year."

Lapp believes that so far THON is on the right track toward breaking last year's record.

THON ends their fundraising season with a 46-hour dance marathon at University Park. It will be held from Feb. 19 to 21. Lapp expects a decent turnout this year, and says that "everyone is welcome to come. There will hopefully be a bigger Behrend section this year because we are the biggest commonwealth campus. But we don't represent well at all."
