This week's sights and scenes caught on camera.

Liisa Karela (left) from Personal Counseling Office, along with other staff and students attended the 12th Annual Souper Bowl that was located at the Shrine Club in Erie. It featured 20 local restaurants competing for the "Best Soup" that helped raise money for the Sarah Reed Children's Center.

The Army ROTC Color Guard presented our nation's colors during the Women's and Men's Basketball games against Frostburg State on Saturday in front of hundreds of students, faculty and staff, including the public.

Senior Airman Daniel Smith (right) hosted and coordinated the annual Military Appreciation Day this year in Junker Center. This is his second year organizing the event, and every year it grows with attendance and support from local businesses, faculty, staff and students.

Every member of the Student Athlete Advisory Committee help raise money for the Haiti Relief Fund this past Saturday in the Junker Center and raised over $100 for the benefit.
