

Have Your Say:

How do you think the Dobbins' fire will affect the campus and how has the fire affected you personally?

Chancellor Burke: Thankful for No Injuries

"My main concern is getting everybody fed on a regular basis. We're waiting for what the fire marshal will say and will go from there. We're trying to find out about the east side and if it is usable. I'm thankful that no one was in it and am proud of the students last night. Everybody's been working together."

CHANCELLOR BURKE

Commuter's P.O.V.

"I'm a commuter, so it doesn't affect me personally. I ate there once and the only way it affects me is that it crowds Bruno's."

Goodbye Dobbins

"I haven't eaten at Dobbins since freshman year, so I don't eat there so much. I'm gonna miss it, though."

ROB PARKER

Chaos in Bruno's

"Bruno's was very chaotic when we came for lunch. We could barely walk through it. It will affect the students because Dobbins was more of a hang out place, and we won't have that anymore."

Hard Conditions

"I think the campus will be under hard conditions, and they have to find a way to get the food back. Not only does it go to the students, but also to Knowledge Park, the Logan House and other special events."

NICOLE WEISENBACH
 Nursing
 Sophomore

Big Change

"I am going to have to wake up ten minutes before work instead of five, and that will be detrimental to my amount of sleep. It's going to be a big change to go somewhere else to eat Dobbins food and will be a big change for students who work there."

Perry Perspective

"I think there is going to be long lines at Bruno's now. It's going to be difficult to rebuild Dobbins."

I live in Perry, so I was scared last night that it might collapse and fall down the hill. My meal plan is already almost running out, and Bruno's is more expensive."

Bruno's Madness

"Bruno's is going to be crazy during the day. It doesn't really affect me. I cook my own food unless I come down to Bruno's."

No more Dobbins

"We just won't be able to eat at Dobbins. I don't think it will affect much else."

It hasn't affected me personally, really."

RYAN ALEXAS

Stress Levels Rise

"They're not firing anyone, so that's good. Maybe it will increase traffic in the Reed building and it also might increase stress levels. I'm sure that Behrend will do what they can to get the building back up and running."

I'm a commuter so it affects me indirectly. It also might affect parking."

Farther to Walk

"I was thoroughly entertained for an hour. I'll have to walk farther to eat, but that's about it."

TIM HUBERT

Strain on the Wallet

"It will put a strain on money and everyone on campus for that matter. It will also affect the transportation of food. I'm really curious to find out the cause of the fire."

Editorial Policies

Single copies of the Beacon are free and available at newsstands around campus. Additional copies can be purchased with permission of the editor-in-chief for $1.50 each.

Opinions expressed herein are not necessarily those of all students, faculty or University administration. Opinions expressed in columns, cartoons, and letters are not necessarily those of The Behrend Beacon unless otherwise indicated.

Any letters intended for publication must be addressed to the editor, be no more than 350 words, and include the writer's name and phone number. Letters may be edited for content or length at the editor in chief's discretion. The Behrend Beacon does not publish anonymous letters to the editor. If students want their letters to be published, they must include their name. The Behrend Beacon intends for its Opinion page to be a forum for discussion, not a screen to hide behind. Occasionally, The Behrend Beacon may request responses to online queries in which responders will be identified by their username.

The Behrend Beacon is editorially independent from the Penn State system. The Behrend Beacon operates partially on Student Activity Fee, and partially on advertising revenue. It is published every Friday during the school year except for before and during scheduled vacations, with exceptions for special issues.

The editor-in-chief has the final authority on editorial decisions, including, but not limited to, all columns, editorials, and letters to the editor. Complaints regarding Beacon coverage of school events should be directed to the editor at editor@psu.edu.
