MAKE-A-WISH

Faculty defeats seniors in Swishes for Wishes game

AMBER MILLER

Basketball fans and Make-A-Wish Foundation supporters alike trickled into the Junker Center court on Monday for the 5th Annual Swishes for Wishes faculty versus seniors charity basketball game.

The court bustled with pre-game activities, such as warm-up music, raffle ticket sales, and the usual playfulness of Behrend's own Nittany Lion. An early bird drawing even took place as a $25 iTunes gift card went to the first winner of the night.

As game time commenced, the faculty started strong in scoring the first four points of the night, and by the end of the first period were in the lead 18-12. That's not to say the seniors didn't hold their own, as rough play was reported by more than one faculty member.

Terry Blakney, a senior lecturer in statistics says, "I'm still trying to figure out whose elbow left the bruise on my ribcage."

Of course, all play was in good fun as Keith Cerroni a Resident Life Coordinator, said, "There was some aggressiveness out on the court, but it was all in good spirit. It was all

The Swishes for Wishes basketball contest left competitors battered and bruised for a good cause.

It was in the third quarter when the seniors caught up to the faculty team, now only trailing them by one point. However, experience prevailed as the faculty beat out their students 65-63 in the final period. The defeated seniors displayed good sportsmanship as Zakaria Sharif says, "Overall I thought it was a success, even though we lost to the faculty. We didn't want to make them look bad, so we made the game competitive."

Kevin Jackson said, "That was the most interesting game I have ever played with older people, but I want to congratulate them on their victory."

All players and fans were inspired by this charity event, and Swishes for Wishes successfully earned $350 towards their overall goal of $3,400.

Cerroni said, "Between a good crowd, the energy of the dance team and cheerleaders, the raffling of $1,100 in prizes, and a hard-fought game, we felt the event was both fun and successful."

Swishes for Wishes was made possible by the Senior Year Experience Committee and the 2010 RA Class, as well as the ACP, Behrend Athletics, the Behrend Dance Team, and Behrend Cheerleaders.

about people trying to help their team win."

In between periods were multiple drawings and prizes for those with raffle tickets, including gift cards to Subway,

Barnes & Noble, Tinseltown, Sheetz, Red Lobster and more. Also, free throw contests and other small games were played for the chance to win prizes such as a PSB hoodie or tickets to Saturday's GooGoo Dolls concert. By the end of period two, the faculty held a firm lead at 41-29, but spirits were still high for the supporters of our graduating basketball stars.

The success of the event was apparent as fans could be seen with endless strands of raffle tickets, especially seniors, who hoped to win one of the many "seniors only" drawings.
