The Homecoming Court fundraiser on Oct. 1 produced $2,000 in four hours. The court members, who were searched for by the homecoming committee, included five members. This year's court members are Marla White, Destiny Lee, Lindemulder, Alex Myers, Adam Nero, Kyle Logue, and Brenna Zanella.

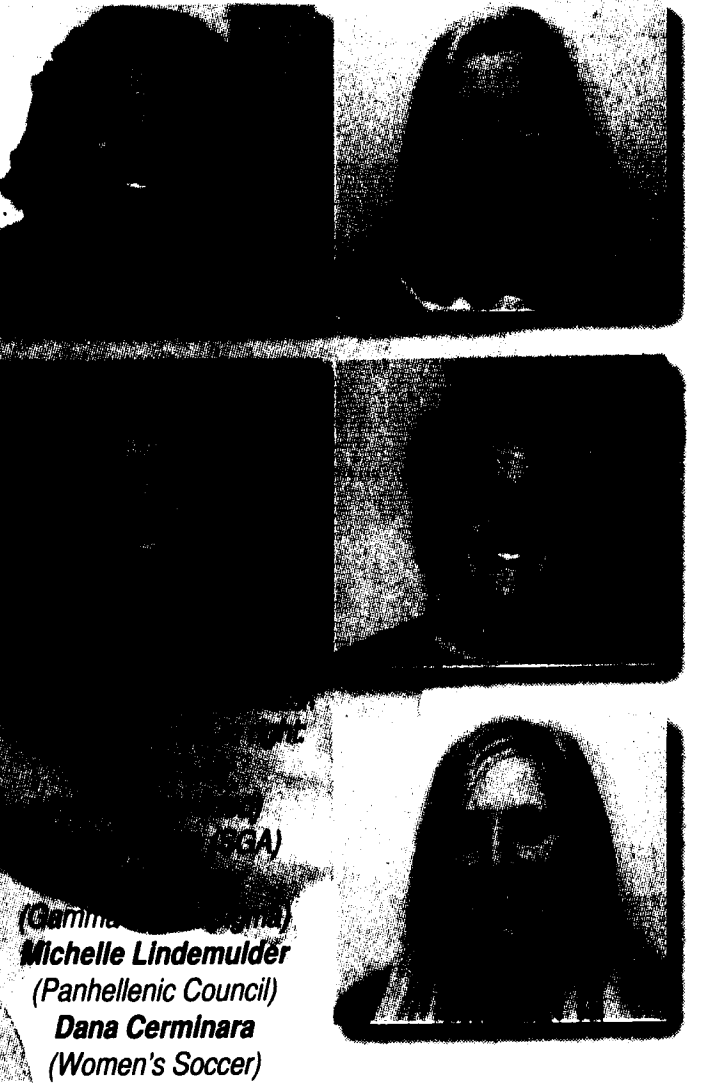

On Monday Oct. 4 and Tuesday Oct. 5, tickets were sold outside of Bruno's in Reed and in front of Clarke Café in the Burke Center. They were then made available at the R.U.B. desk.

As there were 400 tickets to be sold initially and only 150 of these have been purchased so far, the homecoming committee will again occupy these locations on Monday Oct. 11 and Tuesday Oct. 12.

"The results of the Jail Bail fundraiser certainly says something about the caliber of students that we have here at Behrend," says Andrew Iams, president of homecoming committee. "We also have very good staff and offices who helped to homecoming events on Wednesday.

Homecoming events will kick off on Wednesday Oct. 13 with an inflatable obstacle course by Senat Hall. Tickets will continue to be sold at the R.U.B. desk.

Bought your homecoming dance tickets yet?

They're only five dollars.
(That's only fifty cents more expensive than Bruno's cheese sticks.)
(Really.)

Tickets are available at the RUB Desk for only $5 with a Penn State student ID.

The dance is Thursday, Oct. 16 at 9:00 p.m. in Junker.
