

New Security

Frank Nowak works at his desk as Behrend's new Security Officer. Nowak forsee's a new positive image for the security force in the new role at Behrend.

Nowak Endorses Fair Security

A new image and atmosphere is being promoted for the security system by Frank Nowak, Chief of Campus Security. He believes that the security system is here for our protection and safety, but more than that, he would like to establish a working relationship with all the students.

Nowak feels that "everyone should be given a fair chance", and he wants to see his policy carried out. He believes there is no need to persecute a student for acts of mischief if it can be worked out by discussion giving him another chance.

According to Nowak, the administration is cooperating very well, with his ideas of dealing with students in this manner. With no outside interference he can establish a better relation-

Religious Interest Promoted on Campus

Those who frequent the Sunday Folk Mass in the RUB had those interested sign up for various committees to get more religious interest on campus. A Parish Council, consisting of Carla Bossart, Nadine Alex, Frank Crissy, Joe Engerski, Carol Jamison, Mary Ann Kozlowski, Art Muchow, Nancy Nilson, Erick Peters, Donna Scassera, and Reese Friedman, formed to help.

At their first meeting with Father Pat the group talked about a Liturgy Group which is to be formed to help find meaningful readings and poems to be used at the Mass.

Also formed was a Folk Choir which will help lead the songs at the Mass. Father Pat is trying to get the students into the Mass and to forget their fears and shyness and join in.

Through out the year the group will present Film-Rap sessions where films to stimulate discussion will be shown. Also a Dorm-Prayer Group will meet in the TV room of Perry East at 10 o'clock Tuesday nights. All are invited.
