

Spooky Readers

The Behrend Readers presented a Halloween treat last week as it presented a medley of spooky stories for the benefit of campus viewers.

Free Film Series Lists Future Shows

The second program in the Behrend Tuesday night film Series will take place on Tuesday, November 9, at 8 p.m. in the Reed Union Building Lecture Hall, with the presentation of "Red Desert". Directed by Michelangelo Antonioni (Blow-Up, "Zabriskie Point"), it is considered by many film critics to be one of the finest color films ever made.

Set in an industrial town in Italy, the film tells the story of a young married woman (Monica Vitti), who, bored with her life, decides on an affair. Instead of making her happier, the affair leaves her restless and unhappy as before.

The Behrend Tuesday Night Film Series is a series of admission-free films scheduled for the second Tuesday of each month during the regular weeks of the term.

Future showings include, on January 11, "Notorious" by Hitchcock, with Cary Grant and Ingrid Bergman; "The Triumph of the Will", February 8; "The Plow that Broke the Plains" by Pare Lorentz and "Nanook of the North" by Robert Flaherty, both of interest to the ecologically minded, on March 7; "The Strong Man" with Harry Langdon, one of the greatest silent comedies, with piano music provided by Mrs. Marion Flaherty, on April 11; and on May 9, two outstanding documentaries on artists.

Students Reminded To Declare Majors

All those students classified as third term or higher (6th term in the College of Business Administration) who have not as yet declared a specific major within their college should report as soon as possible to their Dean's Representative to declare their major. If a student is in doubt as to whether he or she has officially declared a major, check with the Dean's Representative. This must be done by next Wednesday or Thursday at the latest if these majors are to be effective for Winter Term 1972.

The Dean's Representatives at the Behrend Campus for the 1971-72 academic year are as follows: College of Agriculture-Dr. Masteller (Nick Bldg.); College of Arts and Arch.-Mr. James Flaherty (Studio); College of Business Adm.-Mr. Wayne Hemberger (102A Turnbull); Earth & Min. Science - Mr. E. Tucker (Otto Behrend Bldg.); College of Education - Mr. R. Tauber (North Cottage); College of Engineering-Mr. John Grode (Nick Bldg.); Health Phys. Ed. & Recreation-Mr. Roger Sweeting (Erie Hall); College of Human Devel.-Mrs. Ana Garcia (Nick Bldg.); College of Liberal Arts-Mr. Phillip Iobst (102B Turnbull); College of Science-Dr. Cunningham (Nick Bldg.).

Daniel Discusses Reformation

David P. Daniel will inaugurate the Behrend Library Lecture Series for this academic year on November 10 at 8:00 p.m. in the Reed Union Building Lecture Hall.

Mr. Daniel joined the Behrend faculty as an instructor in History after spending the 1969-70 academic year at the University of Vienna, Austria, on a Fulbright-Hyas Fellowship and a research grant from the Foundation for Reformation Research. He is a specialist in Reformation History with a major interest in the Lutheran Reformation in south-central Europe.

A graduate of Muhlenberg College, Mr. Daniel received his M.A. in History from Lehigh University and a B.D. from Concordia Theological Seminary of Springfield, Illinois, prior to entering the Pennsylvania State University as a doctoral candidate in European History.

Faculty Questions Student Interest

Several students, three members of the faculty, and three administrators conducted an informal "rap-session" during Common Hour on Tuesday, Nov. 2. Present at the meeting were: J.H. Kochel, J. Claridge, R. Tomsic, L. Balmer, N. Patterson, B.L. Seanor, Al Quinlan, Joe Zani, and Ray Geiger.

Claridge was concerned about the student representation on Faculty Committees. He asked for an explanation of the lack in student participation involving these committees. Al Quinlan stated that applications are being released and, at the moment, 18 applicants have signed up.

Quinlan said that he was expecting at least ten more applications to fill the 15 positions.

Balmer questioned about any dissatisfaction within the Campus; wherein Ray Geiger replied that "many students feel that this campus is a stopping-off point for University Park." In response, it was suggested that the Student Union Board could write a letter to Penn State University Alumni for presentation of a lecture, that there be more involvement in the PSU Alumni Club of Erie and an Open House, here at Behrend, where former PSU students would be invited.

Playhouse Presents Children's Theatre

For quite a while now, it has been "in" to complain about the trend in entertainment. There is more and more nudity, violence, and street language and almost none of what is referred to as "family entertainment."

Producers say that they just provide what sells and viewers complain that they don't get a choice. To make it worse, when something in the "family" vein does come along it is pretty innocuous and loses out to the more pungent offerings on the basis of production quality.

For the past three years there has been a notable exception to this trend in the Erie Playhouse professional Children's Theatre. This series brings to Erie fine professional talent from New York City in mounted productions.

Saturday, December 4th, will make the opening of the fourth season of this remarkable series. The first presentation will be a historical play with music, "One Life: The Dilemma of Nathan Hale." "Nathan Hale" is produced by the same company that created last seasons delightful musical farce, "Gabriel Ghost."

In February, The Playhouse Professional Children's Theatre will present two internationally known mime artists, Jack and Graciela in their show, "Yours, Mine and Ours." This will be followed by Mark Twain's immortal masterpiece, "Tom Sawyer," which will close the season on April 1st.

As in past seasons, the entire season is being sold on a subscription basis with the three show ticket priced at only $3.00. Each show will be presented for three performances, 11:00 a.m.; 1:00 and 3:00 p.m.

Tickets may be ordered by either phone or mail. The Playhouse Box-Office phone number is 899-7008. Mail Orders should be addressed to Erie Playhouse, Professional Children's Theatre-Box 2042-Erie, Penna. 16512. When ordering by mail include a check or money order or indicate a charge to either: Carlisle's Master Charge or Sears Revolving Charge. When mailing by mail include a stamped self-addressed envelope. When charging tickets be sure to include the charge account number. Be sure to also indicate both a first and second choice of performance time.
