

Bud Brigade Hoop Leader

by Tony Alo
Asst. Sports Editor

In intramural basketball action Monday night, in the Commuter league, the Bud Brigade continued the strangle-hold on first place with a 76-15 romp over the Big Ballers. The Bud Brigade remained the only undefeated team in the league at 6-0. The Big Ballers are still without a win in 6 games.

The second-place Turkish Chuggers kept pace with a hard-fought spirited, 39-30 win over W.D.S.A., upping their season slate to 5-1. The loss dropped W.D.S.A. to a 4-2 mark. The Truckers remained a half game behind the Chuggers as they bombed the Pee Wees to raise their record 4-1.

In the Dorm league, the Dirty Dunkers are cruising along in first place with a 6-0 record. They scored an easy win over 1st floor Niagara and the Perry Pacers, both at 5-1. The Fondling Tools round out the top three, a half game behind at 5-2.

Behrend Mat Practice

Behrend grapplers prepare for their big match against Cuyahoga this Saturday. Behrend, which tied New Kensington Campus last weekend will be putting the undefeated records of Julio DeMarco and Mike Kerr on the line against a tough opponent.

Cowboys NFL Champs

by Bob Hoffman
Sports Reporter

Last Sunday the Cowboys' dream finally come through. It took six hard fought years to finally be recognized as World Champs. The Miami Dolphins were simply outclassed by Dallas. Dallas won by stopping the Miami Offense, running over the Miami Defense and refusing to make mistakes. The Cowboys of 1972 have to be considered a great team by all.

On Saturday night Joe Frazier T K O's Terry Daniels in the fourth round. The Fight was a definite mismatch and without watching it you still knew who was going to win. Frazier's next fight might not be as easy. There is speculation his next fight might be in a month or two against an unbeaten top ranked contender George Foreman.

On Tuesday night the N.B.A. East All Stars meet the West All Stars in which some call the mismatch of the year.

The West is coached by Bill Sharman of L.A. who has both Kareem Jabbar and Wilt Chamberlain along with Jerry West, Mike Love, and Spencer Hawood, just to name a few. The East is coached by Tom Heinson of the Boston Celtics. They will have 6'9" Dave Cowens covering the seven footers. Others include John Havlichek, Billy Cunningham and Lou Hudson. The West should roll on to an easy victory.

Bowling Begins At Eastway Lanes

Intramural Bowling begins Thursday January 20, 1972. All teams must meet at Eastway lanes at 9:00 p.m.

Julio DeMarco; Mike Kerr Lead Behrend Grapplers

by Dave Ruef
Sports Writer

Last weekend the Behrend grapplers, hurt by two forfeits, fought back to tie New Kensington (P.S.U.) 27-27.

Julio Di Marco (118 lb.) and Mike Kerr (126 lb.) started Behrend off on the right foot by pinning their opponents in the third and first periods, respectively. Julio now owns a streak of seven consecutive wins, a Behrend Record.

New Kensington then reeled off nine points in a row at the hands of Bob Newcombe (134 lb.) and John Hotchkiss (142 lb.). Newcombe failed to rally in the third period, losing a decision, and Hotchkiss suffered a third period pin. Hotchkiss started the match with his usual animalistic desire and was leading his opponent, but while going for the pin, he committed one error which cost him the match.

Down 21-12, Behrend fought back with victories by Tom Tylman (167 lb.) Paul Jazenski (177 lb.) and Tom Staszewski (190 lb.). Tylman recorded a 10-2 decision, while Jazenski and Staszewski registered first period pins. Jazenski, undefeated thus far, has pinned 5 of his 6 opponents.

New Kensington tied the match as Mike Deeb failed to keep up the pace and fell to a second period pin.

The Cubs, 2-4-1 on the year, travel to Cuyahoga-West this Saturday afternoon. Cuyahoga finished second in the Edinboro Tourney behind Boyce. Boyce earlier defeated Behrend 40-8. In the Cuyahoga match, undefeated Di Marco and Jazenski will face their biggest test, as they face Tourney winners Ben Camaro and Gary Boca.

Coach Onorato's chargers will return home January 28 against Dubois. Try and make it next Friday and catch the grapplers wearing their "new look" in wrestling attire! They may not win many matches, but Onorato thinks they're cute.

Girls Basketball Begins Saturday

by Dave Ruef
Sports Editor

Coach Melody Laudensack's gorgeous gals will begin play this week and make their home debut this Saturday afternoon against Shenango. The female Cubs have been practicing since September in hopes of retaining the Greater Erie Woman's Intercollegiate Basketball crown.

Recently, Behrend scrimmaged Academy and emerged with a 36-35 victory in overtime. Barb Keiter was tops with 13 pts., followed by Sherry Thigpen with 10 points. Sherry was also the hero of the game as she sank the winning free throw.

The remainder of the squad includes: Rhonda Carlson, Sue Cray, Bonnie Angevine, June Anderson, Cherrie Nelson, Diane Raver, Nancy Huck, Jan Pawl, Kay Kelsey, and Nancy Smith.

Mrs. Laudensack is confident of another winning season and hopes for a big turnout this Saturday afternoon. Admission is free.
