

Wrestlers Edged 27-25; Face Cuyahoga-Metro

by Dave Ruef

That third victory, which would set an all time Behrend record, has become an elusive one, as the Behrend wrestling squad dropped another close one 27-25 to DuBois (PSU).

The Cubs, 2-6-1 on the year, fought back from a 21-9 defeat but couldn't quite pin down that elusive win.

Julio DiMarco once again started the Cubs off with an easy 15-7 decision over Jack Woodford. DiMarco upped his season mark to 8-1 as he easily whipped his opponent.

Mike Kerr fell victim to a controversial ruling by the referee and lost a 6-5 heart-breaker to the Duke's John Heyer.

Behrend's Bob Newcomb, John Hotchkiss, and Dale Watazychn were all defeated via 2nd period pins. Watazychn, who has never wrestled before, recently joined the squad in hopes of solving Coach Onorato's depth problem.

Larry Fabrizi (150 lb.) and Tom Tylman (167 lb.) combined to give Behrend 12 points as Fabrizi aggressively pinned Brosius and Tylman won by forfeit.

With Behrend down 21-15 the Wild Pollacks took over and brought the fans to their feet.

Paul Jazenski cut the deficit to two as he destroyed Allan

Dawson 10-0. Paul still remains undefeated with an 8-0 slate.

The other half of the famous Polish duo, Tom Staszewski, put Behrend ahead with a 2nd period pin of DuBois' Bob Shope. Stasz, in true animal fashion, masterfully humbled his opponent.

Mike Deeb, however, could not hold the lead as Jeff Clyde pinned Mike to give DuBois the two point victory.

Coach Onorato's squad will travel Saturday to meet the powerful Cuyahoga C.C. Metro. The Cubs return home next Wednesday to face Shenango Valley (PSU). A big crowd is expected to cheer on the grapplers in quest of their third record-breaking win.

G. McKinney Repeats As Athlete of Week

by Tom Harvey

Glenn McKinney has been selected this week's "athlete of the week," thus joining Jim Cannas as the only repeater in this weekly honor. McKinney was chosen for his sparkling play against DuBois and Beaver which led to Behrend victories in Commonwealth Campus play. Glenn carded 46 points for the two games on 19 field goals and 8 tosses from the sin stripe. He added 8 rebounds and 12 assists to the Behrend cause and thus solidifying his claim to athlete of the week.

Though Glenn's scoring punch is important to the Cubs, it is not the only reason for his selection to the honor. According to Coach

The Behrend Cub cagers upped their season slate to 8-6 with important victories over DuBois and Beaver in commonwealth campus action last weekend. The games played on the Cubs home boards gave Behrend a 4-1 record in conference strife.

The charges of Coach Roger Sweeting opened the weekend's sports activity with a convincing 100-80 win over outmanned DuBois. The Cubs started slow against the Dukes as DuBois owned a 13-12 lead with 14:25 left in the first half. But that was to be the last time DuBois was to see the lead as Sweeting's boys took command. Denny Deiner hit a free throw to tie the score at 13-13 with 14:00 left in the first half. The Cubs then proceeded to blow the Dukes right out of Erie Hall. Behrend, switching defenses from a zone press to a man to man press, obtained a 20-15 lead at the 12:00 mark. The Cubs continued their harassing tactics and breezed to a 50-29 halftime bulge.

The second half started sluggish for Behrend as it took them over 3 minutes to put some points on the board. DuBois went to a zone press in an attempt to catch the streaking Cubs and at the 13:25 mark of the second half had whittled Behrend's lead to 11. The Cubs bounced back behind Burnett's two charity tosses and fielder to give them a 62-47 lead with 13:00 left in the contest. From this point on it was not a question of who but by how much as Behrend rolled to a 22 point victory. Glenn McKinney led the winners with 21 points followed by Denny Derner's 20, and Ike Burnett's 18. Chris Gross and Tom Kozesky were other Cub double figure operatives with 12 and 10 markers respectively. Ernie Majeski's 20 and Don Schutz's 18 led the Dukes in defeat.

Erie Hall was the scene Saturday evening for one of the most exciting games of the 71-72 season. Behrend chalked up an 83-82 come from behind win over tough Beaver Campus, who had entered the evening's action undefeated in conference play.

Both teams started the game in a man for man defense and the score was tied 7-7 at the 17:00 mark of the first half. The Cubs valiantly fought back and trailed 41-35 with 2:00 remaining in first half action when Bentley again found the range of 15 foot jumpers and gave Beaver a 48-37 halftime lead.

The Cubs were not to be denied in second half action as Lamar McIntosh came off the bench to spark Behrend's big win. The men of Sweeting trailed 59-56 at the 10:50 mark when McIntosh and company went to work. A McKinney fielder and a McIntosh hoop coupled with a Burnett free throw gave Behrend a 61-60 lead with 8:30 remaining in the contest. Then at the 7:46 mark Joe Olzewski gave the Cubs a 64-62 lead off a McIntosh behind the back pass assist, a lead Behrend was never to relinquish. The action continues hot and heavy with Behrend up by five 79-74 at the 2:30 mark. Beaver still refused to quit as they narrowed the gap to 3, 83-80, with :55 seconds remaining in the heated contest. The Beaver's scored with 2 ticks remaining on the clock and proceeded to foul co-captain Ike Burnett in a desperation attempt to win the game. Ike missed the first of a one on one situation but the Dukes 40 foot desperation shot at the buzzer was no good giving the Cubs an exciting hard-fought win over a tough Beaver quintet. Glenn McKinney led Behrend's scoring with 25 points followed by Beaver's Stan Coleman's 15 and Greg Jackson's 15.

Next week the Cubs travel to Shenango to face Shenango Valley in commonwealth campus action and on Saturday face the Fredonia State Frosh on the Erie Hall boards with 8:00 o'clock tipoff times slated. Preceding the Fredonia-Behrend match will be the intramural basketball championship between the winners of the Dorm League and Commuters League. Tip off time for the preliminary game is 6:30. This weekend should be an exciting weekend for hoop fans at Behrend so come on out to Erie Hall and catch all the Basketball action.
