

Behrend Stomped: Hopes Still High

by Dave Ruef
Sports Writer

Seven grapplers fell, two forfeits, and just one winner—the result: Behrend was trounced by Cuyahoga 42-3 in Cleveland last Saturday afternoon. The highly-touted Cuyahoga squad handed Behrend their second worst defeat of the season dropping their slate to a 2-7-1 mark.

Julio DiMarco, continuing his winning ways, was the lone winner for the Cubs. Julio upped his season record to 9-1.

After Julio it was all downhill for Behrend as the Strongboys from Cuyahoga claimed pins over John Hotchkiss, Tom Tylman, and Tom Staszewski; Behrend's Bob Newcombe, Larry Fabrizi, Dale "Carlos" Watazychn, and Paul Jazenski.

Jazenski lost a heart-breaker 8-6 to Eli Whitten which stopped Paul's hopes of an undefeated season. Jazenski had previously won eight in a row.

The absence of Mike Kerr and Mike Deeb were apparent but both should be back in action soon. The duo were placed on the disabled list because of injuries.

Coach Onorato's stalwarts have just two matches remaining before the Commonwealth Campus Tourney February 18-19. The defending Campus champs will face Jamestown Community College for their last home match of the season this Saturday at 6:30 p.m. at Erie Hall. Their season finale is next Wednesday against Beaver Campus (PSU) at Beaver.

If you get a chance, catch the grapplers at their last home match this Saturday night.

Cagers Roar To 10-6 Slate: Face Jamestown CC on Sat.

by Tom Harvey
Sports Reporter

The Behrend Campus cagers reached their highest plateau of the season last week as they defeated Shenango in commonwealth campus action 105-81 and the Fredonia State Frosh 96-81 in independent strife. The two victories gave the rampaging Cubs a 10-6 seasonslate.

The charges of Coach Roger Sweeting journeyed to Sharon on Wednesday to face Shenango Valley-PSU and came home with a 105-81 win. The Cubs stormed to a 49-36 halftime margin. The Behrend hoopsters were led in the first half barrage by Glenn McKinney's 18 points and Denny Deiner's 9. The second half was more of the same as Behrend cruised to a 56-45 second half bulge for a final 24 point margin. The Cubs scoring was led by Glenn McKinney's 37 followed by Deiner's 17, Kozesky's 13, and Ike Burnett's 12. Deiner controlled the boards for Behrend as he gathered 15 stray shots. Lamar McIntosh came off the bench and although he scored only 3 points he contributed seven vital assists.

Fredonia State Frosh braved the elements and traveled to Behrend on Saturday to face the Cubs in an independent contest. Fredonia was rudely greeted by the hosts as they started fast and never relented. The Cubs jumped to a 7-2 lead at the 17:00 mark and blitzed to a comfortable 44-27 bulge at halftime. McKinney and Burnett sparked the first half assault with 14 and 12 points respectively. The second half had Fredonia on top by two but it was not nearly enough as the men of Sweeting had a big fifteen point victory. Glenn McKinney led the Cub scoring parade with 30 markers followed by Deiner's 21 and Burnett's 20. Deiner gathered 21 rebounds to complete an impressive performance for the 6'3" leaper.

This week's action has the Cubs at Erie Hall on Wednesday and Saturday. On Wednesday the Cubs host Shenango in a return duke with Saturday's action bringing Jamestown Community College to Behrend in another independent contest. The Cubs seemed to have reached their peak as they have taken four in a row and seven of the last eight. Behrend is playing an exciting, fast moving brand of basketball that makes for enjoyable action for the fans. Wednesday and Saturday when you are trying to think of something to do, come out to Erie Hall and lend your vocal support to the Cubs drive for the Commonwealth championship.

Julio Di Marco Named Athlete of The Week

by Dave Ruef
Sports Writer

The little fireball of the Behrend wrestling squad Julio DiMarco has been chosen as this week's "Athlete of the Week". Julio was the only winner in last week's match against a powerful Cuyahoga Metro team which demolished Behrend 42-3.

The freshman flash has demolished all but one opponent this season as he owns a 9-1 dual meet record. His only loss came at the hands of Cuyahoga West's Ben Camargo. The highly touted Camargo defeated Julio 4-1.

DiMarco has pinned four of his ten opponents and earned a total of 39 points for Behrend this season.

Coach Ed Onorato spoke very highly of Julio. "DiMarco is one of the quickest boys I have ever coached. He is very quick to learn and is a real hard worker. I will count on him highly in the upcoming Commonwealth Campus and Region XIX Tourneys."

Julio is rated in the top five in the Regionals for his outstanding record.

DiMarco is a product of Cathedral Prep where he was State champ his senior year. He is an Associate Degree-Business Major.
