

DeMarco, Jazenski Place 5th, 6th In NJCAA Tourney

It's been a long hard season for the wrestling duo of Julio DiMarco and Paul Jazenski, but what a happy ending!

Paul and Julio competed in the National Junior College Wrestling Tournament and came home with medals on their chests and smiles on their faces, as they placed 5th and 6th respectively among the nation's finest. It's hard to realize the great feat that these two accomplished.

In some tournaments there are a few bad wrestlers who are easy prey, but not in the Nationals. Just to be invited to this great event, you must place in the top three wrestlers of each zone. There are ten zones in the nation, each one composed of at least three or four states. So even to go to the Nationals is a great accomplishment.

But Julio and Paul, competing against the top thirty wrestlers in their weight class in the country, came home as winners.

Julio, wrestling in the 118 lb. division, destroyed his first two opponents by a 3rd period pin and a 15-5 decision. These two were previously undefeated and champion in their respective zones.

In the quarter finals, Jules lost a 6-4 decision to Rick Dawson of Northern Oklahoma. Dawson, who eventually finished third in the Tourney, piled up a 4-1 lead in the first period and stalled his way to a 2 pt. victory in the remaining two periods.

Julio then moving to the consolation bracket, crushed Mike McGrath of Ellsworth C C and Greg Gombs of Forest Park C C to move up among the leaders.

DiMarco suffered his second setback of the Tournament at the hands of Jim Alder of Farmingdale CC (team champion). Julio fell behind 4-1 and once again fell victim to stalling tactics and was defeated 5-2.

Wrestling for 5th or 6th place, Julio was defeated by Joe Corso of Northern Idaho CC in overtime 3-1.

This match ended DiMarco's competition which brought him his sixth place medal.

Paul Jazenski, wrestling in the 177 lb. Class, easily whipped his first two opponents and faced Ed White of Morrisville A.T. Down by 1 pt., Paul scored a takedown with 20 seconds left in the match to lead White 5-4. But White's riding time through the match into overtime. Paul's escape in the extra period gave him a 1 pt. victory 6-5.

In the Semi-Finals, Paul was pinned by Steve Bonsel of Middlesex CC (National Champ), which moved him into the consolation bracket to face Tyrone Everhart of Kennedy-King CC.

In this match, Jazenski came back from a 5-0 deficit and won with his usual late scoring tactics 6-5.

Bruce Bora, who Paul split two decisions with earlier in the year, was his next opponent. Bora was too much for Paul this time around and the Cuyahoga-West flash emerged a 3-0 victor.

In his final match, wrestling for 5th or 6th place, Jazenski had to wrestle Everhart for the second time. Both were extremely confident and aggressive, but Paul came out on top with a 7-6 hard fought win.

This nailed down the number five spot for the Behrend strongboy.

Coach Ed Onorato, who accompanied the two to Worthington, Minnesota, was ecstatic. "To take two boys to the Nationals and have them both place is a fantastic thrill. You couldn't imagine the great pressure at this tournament. But Paul and Julio came through with flying colors."

Behrend is lucky and proud to have two boys who have proved that they're one of the finest Junior College wrestlers in the nation.

Cub Gals Upset Tough Villa Team

Villa hosted a breath-taking game in which Behrend threw Villa an unexpected defeat. Behrend was supposedly ready for the Villians of Villa, but by the third quarter it didn't appear as such. At that time our girls were trailing by five points. Melody Laudensack, coach of the team, called the girls in at once in an attempt to get them together.

Villa's team had height and weight over Behrend which placed them high under the boards and gave them dominance on the jump balls, but the tables soon turned. Villa may have dominated under the boards, but it's up and through the basket that counts. It goes without saying, that is exactly what the Behrend girls did to get it together in the fourth quarter.

It was the quick moves and steals of Chris Straub that continually upset the Villa players and the three in-a-row fast breaks by Sherry Thigpen that upset the previously leading Villian team. The team, once tied up, continued its superb performance. Barb Keiter tossed in the b-ball from distant perimeters of the court to help the girls stack up the win as Rhonda Carlson held the team together and contributed to the win with outstanding shots. Sue Cray helped the Behrend gals with her rebounding abilities.

The Behrend girls ended the game with a 11 point lead. The gals certainly displayed an outstanding performance as the resulting score was 38-27.

Behrend must defeat the Villa team again in order to become the league champs. Villa, at present, has a 1-2 record, Mercyrhurst a 2-2 and Behrend leading with a 2-1.
