This award, given annually, will be presented in May of 1972 at University Park.

Several steps are involved in selecting a candidate for the Walker Award. Each Commonwealth Campus selects one student from recommendations. The Behrend SGA selected not fewer than 2 and no more than 5 students as nominees for the award. These recommendations were then forwarded to the Behrend faculty Senate. The Senate selected from the SGA recommendations and other recommendations made by students and administration, no fewer than 5 and no more than 10 candidates. These names were presented to the final committee consisting of: Dr. Richard Tomsic, Assistant Professor of Psychology; Al Quinlan, SGA president; John Claridge, Assistant Director for Academic Affairs; and Benjamin A. Lane, Dean of Student Affairs. Lyons became the candidate from Behrend.

Next, the University is divided into 4 regions. Each region selects one candidate. The regions are:

1. West Penn North

Rebecca Gross Holds Seminar

by Carol Turkington
Staff Reporter

The "Editor in Residence Program" with Ms. Rebecca Gross as guest lecturer will take place at the Behrend Campus May 15-16 in an attempt to bring working newsmen into the educational progress.

There are three basic goals which this program hopes to accomplish:

to help students better understand the reporting, editing, and publishing aspects of journalism to give students and faculty viewpoints on the newspaper's position on the firing line and how newsmen are trying to fulfill their journalistic, ethical responsibilities to provide information on career opportunities available in the newspaper business.

The program is sponsored jointly by the American Society of Newspaper Editors, the Association for Editors in Journalism, and the Newspaper Fund.

Ms. Gross, editor of the "Express" of Lock Haven, Pa. will conduct two workshops; "Newswriting", on Monday evening at 7:30 in the Quiet Lounge, and "Newswriting Organization" on Tuesday at 1 p.m. She will also visit Mrs. Horne's English 112 class on Tuesday, and Mr. Charney's English 1 class, 6th period.

Those participating on the planning committee include Ray Geiger, former editor of the Behrend Collegian; Doug Leichter, editor of the Behrend Collegian; Becky LaPlante, Managing Editor of the Behrend Collegian; Gary Pisani, photographer for the Behrend Collegian; Barbara Coit, and Roy Fronzaglia.

Faculty members and students who are interested in journalism are invited to attend the workshop or any classes.

Betty Seanor, Assistant Dean for Student Affairs, is the Committee Coordinator.

Casino Night Held May 6 In Erie Hall

Imagine yourself being a part of the noisy clamor of crowds gathered around poker tables in the smoke-filled halls of a gambling casino. Picture the spinning roulette wheels and dice being raised and lowered and money scattered around like so much paper. And visualize the look of defeat of a loser and the successful grin of a lucky winner.

This is the typical setting of a night in Las Vegas, and Behrend Campus will present an authentic reproduction of this scene at Las Vegas Night on Saturday, May 6. The event will begin at 9 p.m. in Erie Hall. The price is 50 cents with an activity card and $1. without one. Games such as Big Six, Black Jack, Horse Racing, Poker, Chuck-A-Luck and dice will be some of the gambling attractions at the affair. The gamblers who win the most money will have chances to win some great prizes which will be auctioned off. There will also be refreshments available. This annual Spring event is sponsored by the Student Union Board. Try your luck at Las Vegas Night. Everyone has a chance to win some of the exciting prizes being given away.

Tempus Is Coming To Behrend

Are you concerned about the courses you can take at Behrend?

Do you feel excluded from the planning of Behrend's future?

What's your interest in the sports and other activities on campus?

Are you tired of being ripped off with everything from books to parking stickers?

THEN BE AWARE THAT TEMPUS IS COMING!

Slide Show

Norman Brown, member of the Harrisburg Defense Committee of Erie, presented a slide show on "The Automated AirWar" in the RUB Lecture Hall, Wednesday, April 26.

3. Pocono
4. Piedmont

The members and other candidates from the West Penn Region then met at Behrend to select the final candidate for that region. Lyons was ultimately selected for the award and will go to University Park with Lane, Kochel, and the three other candidates for the final selection in May.

Lyons would like to thank his sponsors James and Marion Flaherty. He stated that he was surprised and "honored being nominated and considered for the award", for he feels that there are other people that might be just as deserving as he.

The award does not necessarily go to upperclassmen, but one basis for consideration is the activities in which the student has participated in his college career. Nominations for the Turnbull Walker Award can be made each Spring term by any officially chartered student, Behrend faculty, Behrend SGA, and Behrend Administration.

Although there is no money involved in this award, it is one of the most elite awards any Penn State student can receive.

The Reivers Shown in RUB

The Reivers is a side-splitting comedy adaptation of William Faulkner's Pulitzer prize winning novel of the same name. It will be shown in the RUB Lecture Hall this Sunday, May 7 at 7 and 9 p.m. Admission is 35 cents with an activity card and $1. without.

Steve McQueen stars as a comedy actor of unusual timing and skill.

The Reivers recounts the adventurous journey of Boon Hogganbeck McQueen and Ned McCaslin (Rupert Crosse) as they show 12-year old Lucius (Mitch Vogel) the way life really is. The journey is a lively excursion from rural Mississippi to "big city" Memphis in a perky yellow 1905 Winton Flyer. Sharon Farrell adds the feminine touch to the comedy.

CWENS Select New Members

The Behrend Campus CWENS met last week to select new members for next year. Twenty-one freshmen girls are being invited to join next year.

Female freshmen holding a 2.5 cum are eligible for CWENS. (all CWENS are sophomores). The prospective members should also have contributed to campus life.

Invitations were sent out to all girls with a 2.5 to attend a tea April 20. There the girls indicated the interest they had in joining.

The 21 prospective members were selected by an election board comprised of faculty members, staff women, present CWENS, and women class leaders. Recommendation sheets were sent to faculty members who had any contact with the girls.

On May 10, a breakfast will be held for the new CWENS in the RUB Seminar room.

The CWENS will also hold a feast, according to ancient Anglo-Saxon ritual at the Holiday Inn in downtown Erie, May 25. All new and old CWENS are invited to the party.
